FOYE HEARING CLOSED BRIDGE CONDEMNED

The Foye hearing before the municipal council was resumed this morning at 8 o'clock and shortly after 11 o'clock all the evidence had been presented and counsel started on the arguments. In the course of this forenoon's session charges of graft and threats were made and considerable sly evidence was introduced. The witnesses heard were Edward H. Foye, the petitioner and two employees of the water department, one of whom recently received an increase in wages of $200 a year from Commissioner Brown. Counsel for Mr. Foye requested Commissioners Brown and Warnock to testify, but they refused to be interrogated. The hearing which was also an adjourned meeting of the council, was opened by Mayor O'Donnell with all members present and the first matter taken up was the report of Mayor O'Donnell on the condition of the wooden bridge across the brook connecting Foxcroftville with Centerville. The mayor said he had found the structure to be in a very dangerous condition and a menace to public safety. He recommended that the bridge be closed to traffic, and on motion of Mr. Warnock it was so voted. The Foye hearing was then continued.

Mr. Foye was called to the witness stand and questioned by Mr. Qua, he said the Merrimack Tea Co. is owned by his brother, Arthur H. Foye, who went into business in July, 1915, and who is still in business. Witness said his brother conducted a wholesale business in Bridge street, a store formerly occupied by Mr. Katz. He said his brother had a storehouse at his home. He denied ever having interest in the Merrimack Tea Co. Mr. Foye said his brother did business with concerns other than the city. Witness said that when goods were purchased from the Merrimack Tea Co. other similar supplies were purchased from F. M. Hill, T. A. D. Sullivan and others and prices were about the same. Mr. Foye said he did not have personal interest in purchasing goods from McEvoy and Duffy. He said the latter conducted a tobacco, cigar, paper and confectionery store in Bridge st. He said the bills for goods purchased from the Merrimack Tea Co., McEvoy and Duffy were fair and compared favorably with prices for goods purchased elsewhere.

A lot of requisitions were produced by Mr. Qua, but Mr. Regan objected on the ground that they were requisitions sent to the purchasing agent's office while Mr. Foye was not in office.

At this point Mr. Brown read a letter he received from Supt. Thomas of the water department in reference to the purchasing of goods, stating that all goods are purchased on requisitions by the purchasing agent and for the benefit of the agent the names of manufacturers are written on the requisitions. The department carries a large stock, but there are cases where emergency requires a speedy purchase of goods, such as fittings or broken pieces that have to be replaced. Mr. Thomas concluded by saying it would be hard to improve conditions in the department.

POLICE SEEK WOMAN WHO LEFT SUICIDE NOTE

A young woman, probably about 23 years of age, whose first name is given as Agnes, and who resided at 73 Rock street for a short time, is missing and, according to missives, she has committed suicide. The police have failed to locate her, but they do not put much credence in her note stating she was going to end her life.

Last night a woman, who lives in Rock street called the police station and turned over a photograph of two girls, also one of the girl's husband and two sheets of paper, one addressed to "My Dear Biddy" and the other to "Mother." The letter to the mother read as follows: "Mother, come for my furniture. I am dying from poison. My Biddy has left me. I am discouraged. Forgive your little daughter, Agnes. Save my Biddy's picture. God love him, I am done for all."

The other letter, addressed to "Biddy" was full of love and asked for forgiveness, and closed with "From your heart broken wife."

The woman who brought the photographs and letters to the police station said that the girl had handed them to her to deliver. Several police officers were immediately sent to the house in Rock street. The door was open and an investigation showed that there was but little furniture in the place. There was no sign of the girl there and nothing to indicate that any tragedy had occurred.

The question now is, where is Agnes and what has she done?

POST OFFICE EMPLOYEES BUY LIBERTY BONDS

Lowell's government employees are not hiding their light under a bushel in the Liberty bond campaign. For it was announced this afternoon that the employees of the local post-office had contributed $5000 to the fund up until midnight today with still more in sight. This speaks well for the spirit of the boys who work for Uncle Sam.

Avalanche of Subscriptions in Final Hours Brings Total to $3,000,000,000

Huge War Loan a Tremendous Success—Four Banner Districts, New York, Chicago, Cleveland and Boston Subscribe the Full $2,000,000,000 Offering Alone

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Liberty Loan has been tremendously over-subscribed. When the books closed at noon treasury officials estimated that the total would reach at least $2,600,000,000 and might soar to $3,000,000,000.

Every federal reserve district with the possible exception of Atlanta and Kansas City appeared to have exceeded its minimum allotment. Reports from these two districts were slow in coming in. With thousands of banks to be heard from in the two districts, however, it seemed likely that the minimum allotment would be reached in each case.

Avalanche of Subscriptions
Reports by telephone and telegraph

Walter Dyer, Hugh Davidson and Daniel Kelley were found guilty of ringing in a false alarm of fire in police court this morning, and each was ordered to pay a fine of $25. Eugene Higgins was found not guilty and discharged. Judge Bright, in imposing sentence, stated that the giving of a false alarm was a serious crime as the lives of people were endangered every time an alarm is sounded. He said that the law allows him to impose a sentence of six months in jail and that if the pulling in of false alarms continues he will impose direct sentences.

During the past several months a number of false alarms have been sounded from boxes located in upper Gorham street and vicinity. At 9:31 o'clock on the night of June 5 an alarm was sounded from box 115, located at the corner of Gorham and Bowdoin streets, but when the department arrived it was found that there was no fire. Chief Saunders reported the matter to the police, and Sergt. Petrie succeeded in rounding up Higgins, Dyer, Davidson and Kelley. According to his own admission, Dyer admitted pulling the hook which sounded the alarm, and Davidson and Kelley also took part in the affair.

Higgins, testifying in his own behalf, said that the door of the box had been opened and he was in the act of closing it when Dyer reached over his shoulder and pulled the alarm.

Davidson and Kelley are 16 years of age and they were tried in the juvenile session of the police court. When each was ordered to pay a fine of $25 Davidson said he would go to jail more in jail while McGovern received a sentence of one month at the same place.

Albert B. Spaulding denied that he was drunk yesterday but after two officers had testified as to the man's condition, the court found him guilty and sentenced him to one month in jail.

James McGrada and James McDermott were arrested of the South common yesterday afternoon by Officer Cawley and Dwyer, and in court this morning pleaded guilty to complaints charging them with drunkenness. McGrada was sentenced to two months in jail while McDermott received a sentence of one month at the same place.

Albert B. Spaulding denied that he was drunk yesterday but after two officers had testified as to the man's condition, the court found him guilty and sentenced him to one month in jail.

Swelling the huge total by millions came the belated subscriptions of the banks held back till the last moment. The clerical forces of virtually every reserve bank were practically buried under a landslide of eleventh hour subscriptions.

Millions Subscribed by Wire

Because of this situation, the exact total subscription may not be known for many hours. The full magnitude of the country's response even may not be measured for several days. Thousands of belated subscriptions, it is feared, may not reach the reserve banks till after the deadline of noon.

NO SCRAP OF PAPER!

From every section of the country told of an avalanche of small subscriptions at the last moment. Scores of small investors were standing in line at hundreds of banks throughout the country during the final hour. The small subscriber apparently had responded with an enthusiasm that exceeded the most sanguine hopes of officials.

Four banner districts, New York, Chicago, Cleveland and Boston, appeared on the face of returns at noon to have subscribed the full $2,000,000,000 offering alone. New York, as was expected, led all other districts by a margin of more than double the next highest. This estimate was made on the basis of reports an hour before the books closed in the east.

San Francisco started the day with a sensational advance from its previous report of $22,000,000. The first thing officials heard this morning was that instead of being approximately $25,000,000 under its minimum allotment, the district was nearing the minimum and probably would take its quota.

Only Two Districts Below Allotment

In the Dallas district the figure stood at $29,000,000 when the day started—$11,000,000 less than the minimum allotment. There were then more than 2000 banks to be heard from. It was thought their response would easily swell the total to the minimum of $40,000,000.

Apparent failure of the Kansas City and Atlanta districts to reach their minimum, based on early reports, reflected, officials believed, the failure of the cotton farmers of the south and the wheat growers of the west to respond as fully as it had been estimated they would. It was pointed out that in each district the farmers have not harvested their crops and therefore are not in as strong a position to answer the call as they will be after the harvest.

CONG. FULLER SUBSCRIBES MILLION

MALDEN, June 15.—A $1,000,000 subscription for Liberty Loan bonds has been received by the local loan committee from Congressman Alvan T. Fuller. "You have received many subscriptions for $50 bonds to be paid for at $1 a week. These subscriptions are much more creditable than mine," said a telegram accompanying the subscription sent from Washington by the congressman.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF

The jury in the case of Charles Buslawicz against the Bay State Street Railway Co. returned a verdict in the sum of $360 in favor of the plaintiff at the session of the superior court this afternoon. The defendant suffered injuries from a fall from a car of the defendant company at the corner of Neumitt and Andover streets.

GERMANS STILL FALLING BACK---BRITISH ADVANCE

The British campaign in Belgium gives signs of developing into one of the most important of the war. The Germans apparently are unable to resist the pressure being constantly applied to them and are being forced back at a comparatively rapid rate.

Another British Advance

Today brings the announcement of another considerable advance by the British in this area. They attacked last night in the region south and east of Messines and on both sides of the Ypres-Comines canal, gaining all their objectives and capturing one big gun and seven machine guns, together with 150 prisoners.

British Take Trenches

The front line in the British offensive movement extends for a distance of about seven miles from the village of Klein Zillebeke south to the river Warnave. Last night's attack, the culmination of constant pressure, yielded Gen. Plumer's troops the German front trenches between the Warnave and the Lys, besides additional ground, more to the north, in the sector between Ypres and Comines, the official statement indicates.

German Big Guns Withdrawn

Signs of a probable further retreat of the Germans are not wanting. Correspondents have reported the withdrawal of the German big guns in the area east and southeast of Messines to the extreme limit of their range.

Important Developments

The British artillery command of the situation seems to be almost wholly responsible for this and the other yielding tendencies of the Germans. The British big guns secured their advantage when Messines ridge, the only commanding eminence in the region, was stormed at the opening of the offensive.

Gen. Haig's despatches have indicated that important developments might be expected to grow out of the offensive in Belgium, and his prediction appears to be in the way of being made good.

EVERYTHING READY FOR BATTERY B BALL BRITISH WARSHIP TORPEDOED

At the Westford street armory this morning window cleaners, decorators, and broom manipulators were competing with each other in an effort to transform the somewhat matter-of-fact drill shed into a fitting setting for the much heralded farewell dance which Battery B is to hold there this evening.

By noon all preliminary details had been perfected, and everything was in readiness for the gala occasion which tonight promises to be. Lieut. Governor Coolidge, members of the governor's staff, Congressman Rogers, and Mayor O'Donnell are some of the notables who will be present. Lieut. Governor Coolidge will present a silk guidon to the battery, and Mayor O'Donnell will welcome the company as a new Lowell unit. Congressman Rogers and others will make speeches.

This afternoon members of the sixth regiment band, which is to furnish the music for the occasion, came from Framingham, and the boys promised to do their best this evening.

The uniforms for the members of the battery have not yet put in an appearance, so the men will be designated this evening by a red band on the arm. The boys make a last request for a large attendance this evening, as they are soon to enter actual service.

HELD IN $10,000 ON CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY AGAINST REGISTRATION

BOSTON, June 15.—Louis Gallierini, editor of an Italian weekly newspaper published at Lynn, and John Eramo, a printer, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Hayes today on a charge of conspiracy to counsel against registration. They pleaded not guilty and were held under $10,000 bonds for a hearing. The government alleges that they advised against registration in their paper.

FLAG DAY EXERCISES AT MEMORIAL HALL

Flag day exercises were held in Memorial hall last night under the auspices of Post 12, B. F. Butler Relief Corps. Congressman John J. Rogers was the guest of honor and he gave an interesting and instructive address on the history of the flag. He started with its origin, told what it represented and stood for and in conclusion spoke of the present war.

In speaking about the country's stand in entering the war Congressman Rogers emphasized the fact that in all conflicts of this nature there is an occasion and a cause for it. In present instance he allowed that while the loss of American lives and the apparent effort to check the freedom of the seas was a good, and sufficient cause for us taking the attitude we did, there was a more important and justifiable cause. "President Wilson has well explained it in a few words when he said, 'We must make the world safe for democracy,'" said he. "We must protect our ultimate salvation. We must fight on the side of righteousness, we must fight for human liberty. This is a holy war and it is for humanity's sake that we are now engaged in it." In closing the speaker said that we must fight so that we may breathe and grow. "If we don't fight we'll be choked there long they will be fighting us over here later on." A poem on what the flag stands for was read by the speaker.

The opening number was the assembly of flags by the color bearers of all the patriotic organizations of the city. There were also singing quartets, numbers by Miss Lillian G. Rogers, Mrs. Charles Goggin, Joseph Wilmet and Arthur Galley. The accompanist was Ethel Leona Gale.

Patriotic instructor Mrs. Lizzie Worthen had general supervision of the evening's program and she was assisted by President Mrs. Bessie Cummings.

The other numbers on the program were: Song, Miss Lauretta Mireault; remarks, Department President Mrs. Starkweather; remarks, Past Department President Mrs. Laura Smith; remarks, Rev. Alfred Hussey; remarks, Mrs. Libby, national senior aide; duet, Miss Alice Stearns and Bernice Staples; remarks, Mrs. Dorcas Lyman, Past Department President; remarks, Mrs. A. Sarre; and finale by the entire company, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Miss Cora Bartlett was the accompanist of the evening.

STATE GUARD INCREASED

Lowell has added two more units to the State Guard for last night. The Business Men's battalion and a company of Spanish war veterans were officially mustered into the Massachusetts State Guard. The Business Men's battalion is made up of 66 representative business men of Lowell who want to do their "bit" hereafter; they will be known as Co. 53 of the State Guard.

The officers of the company are: Walter E. Jones, captain; Edward Fisher, first lieutenant; C. Frank Dupee, second lieutenant; and A. S. Goldman, secretary.

Co. 60 will be composed of 68 men, Spanish War veterans, and are commanded by Capt. A. D. Mitchell. First Lieut. Frank Dodge and Second Lieut. J. E. Crowley.

After the physical examination last night the men were assembled on the drill floor of the Westford street armory and mustered in by Col. Edward H. Eldridge, a retired officer of the Massachusetts Volunteer militia. The term of service in the State Guard is for two years, or less if the war does not last that long.

SECRETARY OF Y. M. C. A. TENDERS RESIGNATION

Much regret was expressed throughout the city today when it became known that Dr. D. E. Yarnell, for eight years general secretary of the Lowell Young Men's Christian Association, had tendered his resignation to the directors of the association, to take effect July 1.

Dr. Yarnell has done splendid work for the young men of Lowell and vicinity during his stay in this city. He is to take several months' vacation, after which he will enter Y.M.C.A. activities in New York.

His letter of resignation follows: Professor Louis A. Olney, President Lowell Young Men's Christian Association.

Dear Mr. Olney:—Allow me to express to you and to the board of directors my resignation as general secretary of the Lowell Young Men's Christian Association, to take effect July 1, 1917.

It has been a great pleasure to have had a share during the past eight years with the directors and many team workers in securing a new building for the association; in closing with current expense bills paid each year; with increasing membership and activities.

I wish to express my sincere personal appreciation of the generous support given by the members, directors and many friends of the association, as expressed in the large contributions of time, money and personal services for the advancement of the association work in this community and the foreign field.

With kind personal regards and best wishes for the future development of the work, I remain,

Very sincerely yours, D. E. Yarnell.

In accepting the resignation the directors expressed their regret at his departure, and their appreciation of his services.

FAMILY OF THREE RESCUED FROM DROWNING

BOSTON, June 15.—While celebrating his 15th wedding anniversary canoeing on the Charles yesterday afternoon, J. G. Allen, 33 Symms street, Roslindale, bumped his head against the low arched Charles river bridge and upset the canoe containing his wife and 8-year-old daughter, Martha.

Patrolman Albert J. Nott of Station 17 swam ashore with Mrs. Allen while Walter J. Burke of Natick and Henry Homer of Sausnet canoe club succeeded in rescuing the father and daughter.

Officer Nott upon hearing screams for help procured a canoe and paddled to the scene. He found Mrs. Allen being held up in the water between two canoes and the boatmen, having all they could do in holding on to the woman, were drifting down the river. Realizing that immediate action was necessary the officer removed coat and helmet and plunged overboard after Mrs. Allen whom he succeeded in bringing to the raft on the Dedham side of the river.

In the meantime Walter J. Burke of Natick had succeeded in rescuing the little girl, and Henry Homer in his canoe had brought Mr. Allen, who was unconscious, to the shore. Two naval multimen applied first aid methods to Mr. Allen when he was brought ashore and after 20 minutes' vigorous work over him he regained consciousness. The Allen family were last night comfortably at their home last night apparently none the worse for the accident.

TO INCREASE PRICE OF MILK
BOSTON, June 15.—New England milk producers have begun a campaign for a substantial increase in the price of milk delivered to wholesalers here. WATER HEMLOCK VERY POISONOUS PLANT

WASHINGTON, D. C., June — Many deaths, both to human beings and domestic animals, are caused every year by clouta, or water hemlock, a poisonous plant. It is the most violently poisonous of temperate region plants, yet it is not generally recognized. Learn to know it and look out for it. A warning has just been issued by specialists of the U. S. department of agriculture in the form of a circular from the bureau of animal industry. "Clouta (Water Hemlock) as a Poisonous Plant," which describes this plant and gives remedies, though a small domestic animal must be considered as practically hopeless so far as treatment is concerned.

Clouta is widely distributed. Unfortunately, it resembles a number of harmless plants and is not easily recognizable. It belongs to the same family as carrots and parsnips. It has a number of popular names, of which the most common is "cowbane," or "water hemlock." In the mountain regions of the west, it is frequently called "parsnip" or "wild parsnip." Other names, less common, are "snake-root," "snake-weed," "beaver poison," "muskrat weed," "spotted hemlock," and "spotted parsley."

The plant grows in wet places and is especially common in some parts of the west along irrigating ditches. It has a thickened rootstock with roots which sometimes take the form of a group of tubers. The clouta is most readily distinguished from plants of similar appearance growing under the same conditions by the transverse chambers in the rootstock. These can be seen by making a longitudinal section. Further description, except by botanical terms, is difficult, but the circular mentioned presents illustrations that make recognition easy.

Only the root of clouta is poisonous. Cases of poisoning are more frequent in the spring, partly because the roots are more likely to be eaten at that time and partly because they appear to be more poisonous than later in the season. Occasionally stock and the roots when they are washed out by high water in small streams. Farmers in their plowing sometimes bring to the surface a considerable number of roots, and these are eaten by cattle, with resulting sickness and death.

In cases of the poisoning of human beings, the recognized treatment is to give an efficient emetic, followed by a cathartic. Some form of opium may be given to control the convulsions when they are violent. If free vomiting promptly produced, the patient is likely to recover.

It is obvious that ruminant animals should be treated in this way, for the effective clearing of the stomach is impossible. While hypodermic injections of morphine may be used to aid in controlling the convulsions and a purgative may help in eliminating the poison, ordinarily the convulsions are so violent that nothing can be done for the animal.

So far as live stock are concerned, about all that can be done must be in the way of prevention. If to land is plowed where the plant grows, care should be taken that no roots are left where stock can get at them. Here the plants are so abundant, as they frequently do along irrigating ditches, it is desirable to dig them out. When this is done, the roots should not be left on the surface, but should be destroyed. It is seldom that stock are poisoned when grazing, unless they graze along ditches, where the plants sometimes grow almost in the water with very little soil and can easily be pulled up.

Perhaps there is no way to prevent some cases of poisoning of children. Something might be accomplished, however, if parents and teachers would attempt to make clear to children the danger of eating strange roots.

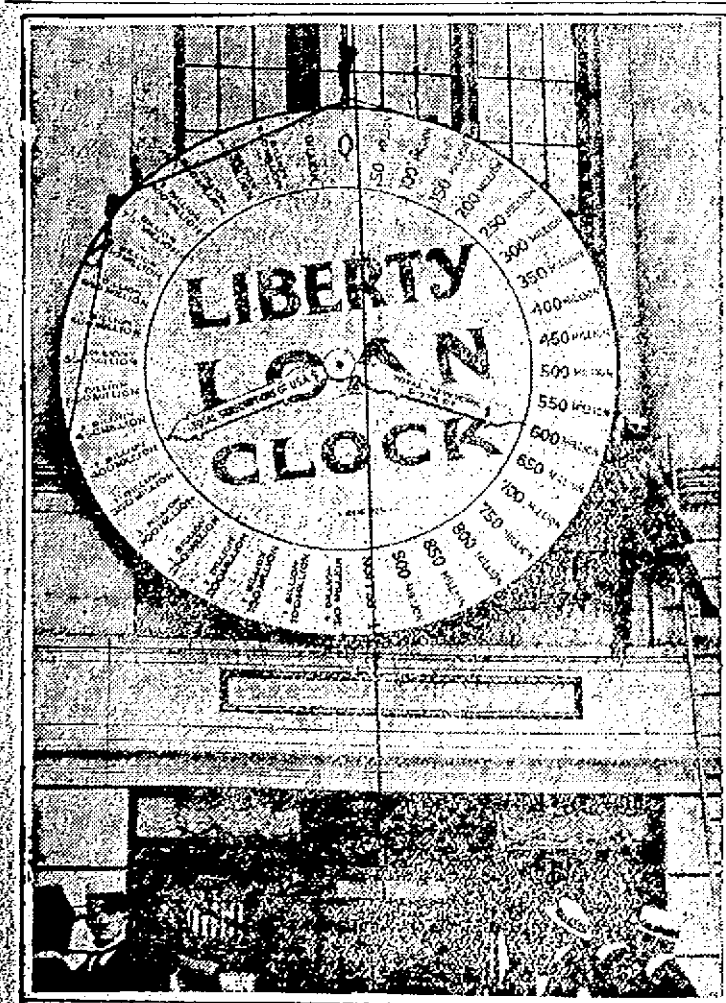

LUMBER INTERESTS MOBILIZED

Under the title "War, Lumber and Ships," the American Forestry Magazine tells an interesting story of the methods by which the lumber interests of America were mobilized into a state of war-time efficiency. As a premise it is stated that during the early weeks of war with Germany the industry moved more quietly, soberly or orderly than the great lumber industry of the United States in its efforts to bring ultimate victory to America, her allies and democracy.

Hardly had the United States entered the war when Lloyd George declared: "The road to victory, the guaranty of victory, the absolute assurance of victory, has to be found in our word ships and a second word, ships, and a third word, ships." To this avowal has been added the emphasis placed upon the need of ships by the British and French commissions to America. To meet this need President Wilson decided upon the construction of 100 wooden ships for the transportation of food and munitions to our allies across the sea. The task was placed in the hands of the lumbermen of America. As a result of the call the leading men in the industry dropped their private business and came to Washington to give freely of their experience and knowledge. Through their energy and skill the government has been enabled to make an immediate start in the building of the ships that will be needed, and general confidence now exists that the building operations will be conducted in a way that will keep the output far ahead of the highest ship mortality rate that can be indicated by the enemy submarines. It is figured that from one million to one and a half million feet of lumber will be required for each vessel, but so great is the national resource in timber that the government surveys indicate that the aggregate will require only about two per cent of the nation's total supply.

LIBERTY LOAN CLOCK DID SOME FINE INDICATING

To mark the success of the efforts to raise the Liberty Loan to the prescribed $2,000,000,000, many novel devices were used in various parts of the country. One of the most striking and effective was the big clock shown in the picture. It is a person who lives at 120 Fifth avenue and 120 street.

perhaps New York's latest corner, how the money was being raised. As the subscriptions mounted the hands were moved, the right hand indicator showing the New York district's share, the left hand of the "clock" indicating the total of the loan subscriptions throughout the country.

"READY!" SAID BASE HOSPITAL SERVICE OF RED CROSS

The Red Cross was prepared for war," says Leo Arnstein, vice chairman of the military relief committee. New York chapter, American Red Cross. "The general indictment that the American nation was and still is unprepared for war there is one notable exception, the base hospital service of the American Red Cross. When war first broke out in Europe and far-sighted men and women saw that this country might ultimately become involved, the directors of the Red Cross began to prepare on a large scale for such an emergency. Up and down the land went organizers, urging public spirited citizens in cities all over the country to establish units and raise funds for hospital equipment. As this meant in each instance the raising of from $25,000 to $50,000 for something whose usefulness was in the minds of the general public very prob-

PRESERVING FOODS BY DRYING THEM

WASHINGTON, D. C., June—Dry vegetables and fruits for winter use in tin cans and glass jars for canning are scarce or expensive.

This is the advice of specialists of the U. S. department of agriculture, who recently have studied the possibilities of conserving food to meet war needs in spite of any difficulties that may be experienced in obtaining canning containers. Drying was a well-recognized and successful way of preserving certain foods before canning came into general use, the specialists point out, and modern methods make it still more practicable than formerly, either in the home or by community groups.

Methods of Drying

Three methods of drying have been found by the department specialists to give satisfactory results. These are sun drying, drying by artificial heat, and drying with air blasts, as before an electric fan. Trays for drying by any one of these methods, as well as tray frames for use over stoves or before fans, can be made satisfactorily at home. Frames and trays for use with artificial heat may be purchased complete if desired.

Home made trays may be made of side and end boards three-fourths of an inch thick and two inches wide, and bottom boards of lathing spaced one-fourth of an inch. If desired, one-fourth inch galvanized wire mesh may be tacked to the side and end boards to form the bottoms of the trays. Frames for use before fans may be made of wood of convenient size. Frames for use with artificial heat should be made of nonflammable material to as great an extent as possible. As many as six trays may be placed one above the other when artificial heat is used. In drying before a fan the number of trays that may be placed one above the other will depend, to a large extent, upon the diameter of the fan. In drying in the sun, trays as described may be used or the products to be dried may be spread on sheets of paper or muslin held in place by weights.

Preparing Products for Drying

Vegetables and fruits will dry better if sliced. They should be cut into slices one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch thick. If thicker, they may not dry thoroughly. While drying, the products should be turned or stirred from time to time. Dried products should be packed temporarily for three or four days and poured each day from one box to another to bring about thorough mixing, and so the whole mass will have a uniform degree of moisture. If during this "conditioning" any pieces of the products are found to be too moist, they should be returned to the trays and dried further. When in condition, the products may be packed permanently in tight paper bags, insect-proof paper boxes or cartons, or glass or tin containers.

Recipes for Drying

Spinach that is in prime condition for greens should be prepared by careful washing and removing the leaves from the roots. Spread the leaves on trays to dry thoroughly. They will dry much more promptly if sliced or chopped.

Beets: Select young, quickly grown, tender beets, which should be washed, peeled, sliced about an eighth of an inch thick, and dried. The beets should be treated in the same way as beets.

Carrots: Select young, quickly grown, tender beets, which should be washed, peeled, sliced about an eighth of an inch thick, and dried. The beets should be treated in the same way as beets.

Onions: Remove the outside papery covering. Cut off tops and roots.

Slice into one-eighth-inch pieces and dry.
Cabbage: Select well developed heads of cabbage, remove all loose outside leaves. Split the cabbage, remove the hard, woody core, and slice the remainder of the head with a meat cutter or other hand slicing machine.
Beet tops: Tops of young beets in suitable condition for greens should be selected and washed carefully. Both the leaf stalk and blade should be cut into sections about one-fourth inch long and spread on screens and dried.
Swiss chard and celery should be prepared in the same way as beet tops.
Rhubarb: Choose young and succulent growth. Prepare as for stewing by skinning the stalks and cutting into pieces about one-fourth inch to one-half inch in length and dry on trays.
Raspberries: Sort out imperfect berries, spread select berries on trays, and dry. Do not dry so long that they become hard enough to rattle. The drying should be stopped as soon as the berries fail to stain the hand when pressed. Pack and "condition."

CANNING THE DOGS

WASHINGTON, June—Next to war dogs seem to be about the most terrible things in the world, according to the hundreds of letters that are coming to the National Food Garden Commission which is conducting a nation wide survey on what the country is really doing on food conservation. In these letters all sorts of answers to the dog question if it be a question are made. One of the latest is from S. S. Harrison of York, Neb., who sends a tabulated account of what can be done with the dog. Harrison says "Let our five million dogs pay some of our war tax." He is for a ten dollar dog tax. He says that a dog would save the trained sheep dog. The document tells of the damage done by dogs to children, horses, gardens and food. What good gloves a dog skin will make.

A national dog law is advocated by the Nebraska who says "A ten cent dog in town is often allowed to rob people of one hundred dollars worth of sleep in a single night while he barks at a cat. Sleep is one of the best assets we have. A dog might as well break into a neighbor's house and rob him of five or ten dollars a night, than allow that worse than worthless dog to rob him of sleep. This should be a national matter. State laws are not strong enough."

Many have written the commission asking it to start a campaign against cats and hundreds of suggestions are being sent in as to how to police the food gardens. The Boy Scouts have been organized for this purpose in many towns.

ORGANIZING REGIMENT OF WOODSMEN

A regiment of woodsmen is being organized by the United States Forest Service, and listing of applicants is now going on at the office of the Massachusetts Forestry association, 4 Joy street, Boston, one block from the state house. The class of men desired are axmen, sawyers, portable mill-sawyers and engineers, motor truck drivers, foremen, scapers, teamsters, clerks, cooks, millwrights, hewers of railroad ties and foresters. In fact every type of labor used in a logging operation is needed. The duty of the regiment will be to get out timber for the armies, and it will work behind the battle lines, but may occasionally be within the danger zone. The regiment will be officered by trained foresters.

Applicants for this regiment must be white, between the ages of 18 and 40, and must pass the regular army physical examination. Men subject to conscription will discharge their obligations by enlisting in this regiment. Enlistment is for period of the war, and pay begins at date of enlistment. The regiment will be organized on

Cocoanut Oil Makes a Splendid Shampoo

It cleanses the hair and roots, keeps the scalp soft and pliable, its creamy, fine, smooth, luxuriant lather makes shampooing a real delight. Removes all particles of dandruff, dirt, dust, excessive oil—rinses out easily and quickly. Your hair will dry quickly and evenly after its use—will appear very much thicker and heavier than it is—fine, silky, fresh and healthy-looking—fluffy, wavy and undisturbed by any wind. Does not dry out the natural oils of the hair.

Discriminating women are using HAY'S COCOANUT OIL SHAMPOO more and more because it is so different, so much better for their hair than ordinary shampoos full of harsh drying salts. It will be one of the best things to the hair. It is fine for children's hair, too.

See at your druggist's. He will refund your money if not satisfactory. Just try it today and be convinced. Always ask for and get the genuine.

Claims Since Taking Plant Juice
She Can Eat Her Food
and is Feeling Fine.

When the delicate machinery of the stomach is not working harmoniously, the stomach is not digesting the food properly; poisons are retained in the system which should be expelled. The new herbal stomach remedy, Plant Juice, assists nature by causing the stomach to properly digest the food, when it promptly dissolves or neutralizes all of the poisonous acids which fermenting food has left in the stomach, and the digestive machinery, thus relieved of the hampered acid accumulation, goes naturally and normally about its work of digestion without help of any kind. Plant Juice counteracts acid formation and so-called dyspepsia and indigestion.

MRS. P. G. DOCKHAM

Among the hundreds of local testimonials received, praising Plant Juice, none is of greater interest than that of Mrs. P. G. Dockham, who resides on Pond street, in Billerica, Mass., and is a well known and popular lady of that town, having many acquaintances here. She said:

"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years and had indigestion so bad that I could not take any solid food into my stomach as I would have such terrible pains afterward. I could not sleep at night on account of the pain. I had headaches, and my liver was also affected, which made me very dizzy; always had a bad taste in my mouth. I tried many different medicines, but none of them seemed to do me the least good, and as I had heard so much about the good Plant Juice was doing in our city, I decided to try it. I am certainly glad that I did, for now I am able to eat anything I want, I sleep well, and have not an ache or pain. I feel stronger and better than I have for years. Plant Juice has made a new woman of me and I am glad to recommend it to others."

The Plant Juice Man is at Dows, the Druggists, in Merrimack Square, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

On Saturday he will remain at the store until 10 p. m. to meet those who are unable to call during the day.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The following notices are from the press agents of the theatres mentioned:

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"The Promise," a Metro picture of stirring interest with Harold Lockwood and May Allison in the principal parts, was shown at the B. F. Keith theatre yesterday afternoon, and last evening, and it will be continued for the remainder of the week. It is a story of the rugged plains of the west, and is filled with action and love scenes of superb beauty. "Babe" is a Vito romance, in the companion picture, with pretty Peggy Hyland featured. The story is of an artist-criminal who is one of the most attractive of the type who take to love with dainty "Babe," and does his best to blot out the past. He succeeds, aided by his friends, in "Babe," which tells the story of a man who has been sorely tried. Sidney Drow, in "Putting It Over Henry," does some of his inimitable comedy work, which will be very much liked. "Henry" was bright, but he couldn't quite keep up to his wife, when it came to framing little games. The Pathé News pictures are as attractive as ever.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The big feature bill at the Merrimack Square theatre for the last three days of this week will again be presented to-day and tomorrow at the continuous performance. On this program are Vivian Martin, who has an admirable role in the five-act feature, "Giving Becky a Chance," which gives Miss Martin excellent opportunities to entertain, and which will appeal to every parent, and has embodied the idea in the mandatory title. The play is well considered, and the lesson it conveys will be understood by all who see it. "Enlighten Thy Daughter" will be shown three times daily at 10, 15 and 25c, prices, no seats reserved.

OWL THEATRE

William Fox will present George Walsh in the leading role of the latest Fox feature, "High Finance," at the Owl theatre today and tomorrow. The story is told so well by Mr. Walsh and surrounding cast is most amusing as well as interesting. A young man brought up in luxury with no apparent ability except to have a good time, comes into his own. The acting, the theme and the photography of this play place it among the foremost productions of the year. Another feature on this program is "The Cloud," in which Jean Sothorn, Walter Miller, Ogden Crane and other celebrated stars appear. The play tells of a girl's love for her mother. Charlie Chaplin will over travel, temptation and trouble. The latest "American Girl" series, featuring Marin Sais, will also be shown today and tomorrow, and will be found to be gripping in every scene and most enjoyable. Other plays will also be shown on this big program.

CROWN THEATRE

Virginia Pearson and Charles Kent, with an all-star cast, will appear at the Crown theatre today and tomorrow in the five-part Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature, "The Vital Question," a complicated picture of honor and love, suffering and sacrifice, through loyalty to principle, which is eventually triumphant. He tells an abandoned copper mine and sells it to his father at a fancy figure. When the father discovers that his son is smarter than he is, comes into his own. The acting, the theme and the photography of this play place it among the foremost productions of the year. Another feature on this program is "The Cloud," in which Jean Sothorn, Walter Miller, Ogden Crane and other celebrated stars appear. The play tells of a girl's love for her mother. Charlie Chaplin will over travel, temptation and trouble. The latest "American Girl" series, featuring Marin Sais, will also be shown today and tomorrow, and will be found to be gripping in every scene and most enjoyable. Other plays will also be shown on this big program.

ROYAL THEATRE

It is literary history that no short stories have so seized upon the American public as those written by O. Henry, the mystic master of the appealing twist in human nature. "Madly in love with them," is the best description of his readers' attitude toward his works. His publishers, Doubleday, Page & Co., state that they have sold well over two million copies of his books since his narratives have been published in that form, and before that they landed into

BLUE SERGE

For twenty years I have been the recognized Blue Serge Tailor of New England. Today is the same, you'll find a greater choice and prices lower—quality considered—than anywhere in New England.

A YEAR AGO I told you in one of my advertisements exactly what the condition of the woolen market would be today. But foreseeing was never more truly forearming. I had already placed tremendous contracts direct with the leading mills and commission houses specializing in the manufacture of guaranteed blue fabrics. Consequently I can offer you today the same high quality Blue Serge, absolutely guaranteed as to color, strength and dependability, at the same prices as in former years. No advance.

Today and Tomorrow

I will have on display in my store, Merrimack Square, Lowell, more Blue Serges than all the tailors in Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill combined. This is not said for a boast, I can prove it. Rolls of them, thousands of yards in different weights so a man can make a selection that he likes.

People want service nowadays—that's why I carry so many kinds and styles. You tell me you see so many styles you like that you don't know which really to pick out. You please me when you say that, because I know that is what you expect of me—Service and low prices.

GERMANY PLANNED TO ANNEX BALTIC PROVINCES OF RUSSIA
FRENCH FRONT, June. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—What Frenchmen regard as proof that the German government has planned to annex the Baltic provinces of Russia was found in a German official pamphlet marked "strictly confidential" and found in a house at Noyon after the German evacuation of that place. Both German government officials and German newspapers recently have denied there was any such plan, but the discovery of the pamphlet is held here as evidence to the contrary. The conclusions summed up in the pamphlet are:

BEAVER BROOK BRIDGE CONDEMNED BY CITY COUNCIL

FOYE HEARING

department. Mr. Brown felt that the requisitions should not be admitted as evidence. "I have never interfered or purchased any supplies except what was mentioned about coal. I have not changed any conditions in reference to purchasing goods." He said being over the requisitions might bring a false impression on the administration of his department.
Mr. Qua asked Mr. Brown if Mr. Thomas in his letter made any reference to the purchase of goods by the commissioner and Mr. Brown called a Mr. Hunt, but Mr. Qua objected to Mr. Hunt testifying at this time.
Mr. Brown said Mr. Thomas told him yesterday that his answer to the charges was drafted by his counsel and it was but a customary thing, and he signed it without even being familiar with it. He said Mr. Thomas said such answer is drafted in the event of the case going to court.
Mr. Qua offered 238 requisitions from the water department and the first department, filed at the office of the purchasing agent during Mr. Lepine's administration, after the goods had been purchased, and in many instances where the requisitions were filed after the goods had been delivered. Mr. Qua also offered nine similar requisitions from the street department.
Mr. Brown said he did not believe in extending more courtesies to Mr. Foye than Mr. Thomas and he asked that a vote be taken on the admission of the requisitions, but Mr. Regan said that was not necessary because the council had already voted on that. Mr. Morse said he would like to know just what his requisitions were. He asked Mr. Foye if it was not customary for the street department to purchase some goods without requisitions and Mr. Foye replied yes, but not at wholesale as was the case with the water department. Mr. Morse was given his requisitions which he examined carefully.

Q.—Prior to the first of January when you were put out of office to what extent were goods purchased without requisitions?
A.—It was done occasionally, when small goods were needed in haste.
Q.—How long have you been purchasing agent?
A.—Six years.
Q.—How did you first obtain the office?
A.—I was elected by the people.
Q.—Do you live in Lowell?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—How long have you lived here?
A.—All my life.
Q.—Were you in office in 1913 when Mr. Brown was transferred to the finance department?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Did you have a talk with him?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—What was said?
Mr. Regan objected and Mr. Qua read the last paragraph of Mr. Foye's answer.
Mr. Qua referred to statements made by Mr. Foye relative to talks he had had with Mr. Brown. Mr. Foye alleged to have been made by the latter, and wanted to have Mr. Foye testify along that line.
Mr. Brown—"You may go on Mr.

Qua. I have no objection, but if anything of what is said is printed in newspapers I will bring suit."
Mr. Qua said he also desired to prove that all bills approved by Mr. Foye were also approved by Mr. Brown and Mr. Morse, and again Mr. Regan objected on the grounds that the requisitions are evidence enough. The answer suggested that Mr. Qua ask witness if Mr. Morse ever disapproved any bills. The question was asked and the reply was in the affirmative.
Mr. Qua said he wished to prove that in 1916 Mr. Morse voted to increase the salary of Mr. Foye, and for the third time Mr. Regan objected.
Had to Vote for Foye
Mr. Morse said he had to vote for Mr. Foye for there were four votes to one. He said that Regan and Welch's pay be raised, but didn't think the council would vote for it, but it did. Mr. Morse—Have you any other bills from other departments?
Mr. Foye—No sir.
Mr. Morse—Did you ever find me to be dishonest?
Mr. Foye—No sir.
The question of whether Mr. Morse voted to raise the salary of the purchasing agent was put and the answer was in the affirmative.
Mr. Qua said he desired to show that Mr. Brown was the guest of Mr. Foye at Christmas. Mr. Brown said he had no objections because the public knew of his honesty and that of Mr. Foye.
Mr. Qua said he wanted to prove that on the same occasion Mr. Brown took Mr. Foye's daughter in his lap and said: "You need not fear for your father as long as I am in office."
Mr. Regan said even though the two men were on good terms there was nothing to prevent Mr. Brown voting to remove Mr. Foye if he found conditions that required such action. Mr. Brown objected, saying that personal matters should not be brought in at the hearing, and then he proceeded to tell of alleged threats made by Mr. Foye.
Replying to statements made by Mr. Brown, Mr. Foye said: "The first time you had dinner at my home you were not in office—was pure down and out."
Mr. Qua—Have you ever made any threat against Mr. Brown?
Mr. Foye—Never.
Mr. Qua—I wish to offer evidence to the effect that Mr. Brown, from the time he would never vote for his removal. Mr. Regan objected, saying that Mr. Brown did not know of conditions in the department until after the date. The mayor said he believed the evidence should be admitted.
Warnock Heard From
Mr. Warnock said the hearing was on charges against Mr. Foye and not on personal matters between Mr. Brown and Mr. Foye. I raise to a point of order.
The Mayor—To me, Mr. Warnock, your point of order is most ridiculous. No place in the world would have conducted a hearing as this hearing has been conducted.
Mr. Warnock—I am going to make a motion that this line of talk be stopped.
Mayor O'Donnell—You are right, Mr. Warnock, and I hope you will stop it.
Mr. Warnock—I don't propose to allow Mr. Foye to make charges against me. I defy any man in this building to attack my honesty, even you, Mr. Mayor.
Mayor O'Donnell—That is right, Mr. Warnock.
Mr. Foye then told of the telephone conversation he had with Mr. Brown on Jan. 4.
Mr. Qua—Was Mr. Brown at your house for dinner on Christmas day, 1915?
Mr. Regan objected and Mr. Qua said he asked the question to show the confidence Mr. Brown had in Mr. Foye at that time and that shortly afterward Mr. Brown voted to remove Mr. Foye.
The Mayor said, in his opinion, counsel was endeavoring to show that on Dec. 25 Messrs. Brown and Foye were the best of friends and that on Jan. 4 the vote to remove Mr. Foye was taken without charges being brought. He said in his opinion the question should be admitted as there was no evidence to show that in the short period between the two dates there was anything found against Mr. Foye.
The mayor ruled that the question be admitted and Mr. Foye said Mr. Brown told him he would trade every man in the building from basement to attic before voting against him.
Mr. Brown then admitted the conversation, saying he did tell Mr. Foye he would be the last man he would vote against on account of Mr. Foye having been good to him.
At this point the direct examination was concluded and the mayor left the room, Mr. Warnock taking the mayor's chair.

Foye Cross-Examined

Q.—Did you say the Merrimack Tea Co. is owned by your brother?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—His business is to run a lunch car?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—What was his business prior to July, 1916?
A.—He worked for the Cudahy Packing Co.
Q.—Where was his place of business in 1916?
A.—Bridge street.
Q.—Was it in a building which you and your brother purchased?
A.—I had nothing to do with the purchase of the building.
Q.—Did you borrow money for the purchase of the building?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Who owned it prior to your brother?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—Did Mr. Katz conduct a business as second hand furniture dealer in that building?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—While your brother was conducting his business at the same place?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—How much stock did your brother carry?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—How did you get prices from your brother?
A.—Over the telephone at the house.

Q.—Your brother sold eggs, tea, coffee, butter, etc., to the city?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Wouldn't such a business require a large storehouse?
A.—I don't know. I remember when you were in the same business, Mr. Regan, and you were doing business in Hennessy's barn.
Q.—Do you know why the Merrimack Tea Co. was never assessed?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did the company own a horse and team?
A.—It owned an auto truck.
Q.—Did it have any employees?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did the company go to the various wholesale houses in Lowell and order goods delivered to the city?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—Do you know that 75 per cent of the bills were written on blanks from the purchasing agent's office?
A.—Some of them.
Q.—A bill paid to the John Street Public Market was produced and identified by Mr. Foye.
Q.—Would it surprise you to know that on the date which appears on the bill there is no charge against the city on the books of the John Street Public Market?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Who is Len McEvoy?
A.—A young man from Centralville.
Q.—Did Duffy Bros. carry a stock of bibles?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—They carried a stock of stationery.
Q.—Did Mr. McEvoy carry a stock of tobacco, toilet paper, etc?
A.—How would you get prices from him?
A.—He would come in for prices.
Q.—Where was he working?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—He was a clerk in a store?
A.—I couldn't say.
Q.—Did you ever get favors from people you purchased from?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did you ever purchase from Mr.

Donovan?

A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Did he ever do you a favor?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—When the goods came in you stamped your approval on the bills to show that the prices were right?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Have you ever received a communication from the school department to the effect that the prices for goods were too high?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Do you know Mr. Boyle?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Did you ever tell him that you had framed that when you would be called to the witness stand and you would make a statement that would require the attention of the grand jury?
A.—No, sir.
Mr. Foye's examination was concluded at this point, and Mr. Qua asked Mr. Brown to take the stand, but Mr. Regan objected, and Mr. Warnock said the objection was sustained.
Mr. Qua said Mr. Brown had been summoned. Mr. Brown refused to testify. Mr. Qua said he wanted to prove that Mr. Brown informed a Boston newspaperman that Mr. Foye had been removed because he had shown favoritism in purchasing goods.
Mr. Regan—There is now a libel suit against the paper in question, you don't want to try a libel case here do you?
Mr. Qua—I don't know what you want to try. I will ask Mr. Warnock to take the stand.
Mr. Warnock—Mr. Warnock is presiding over this hearing and will not testify.
Mr. Regan—It is unfair to ask the members of the council to testify, for they have given you all the opportunities to examine the records of their departments.
Mr. Brown read a prepared statement to the effect that it was ridiculous to call upon the judges to testify.

Mr. Qua said his purpose of having the commissioners testify was to show that the removal of Mr. Foye was in bad faith. At this point the mayor returned and resumed his chair.
Mr. Warnock—The statement of Mr. Foye, that I was one of the men who voted to remove him in order to be able to conduct his department for my benefit was prepared by his counsel. I have given you ample opportunity to inspect conditions in my department. I deny the charges and until you can prove any of the allegations I refuse to answer questions. I have voted against Mr. Foye in good faith. He never asked me to vote for him.
Mr. Qua said Mr. Warnock was under a false apprehension. It is not our belief that there has been a custom in Mr. Warnock's office to purchase goods illegally. The petitioner's case closed at this point.

Edward J. Boyle

Edward J. Boyle was called and questioned by Mr. Regan. He said he had a number of conversations with Mr. Foye since the latter's removal from office. He said Mr. Foye asked him if in the event of being reinstated by the supreme court if charges would be brought against him. He told me he would not go down alone, that if he were accused others would be sacrificed. Witness then told of numerous conversations he has had with Mr. Foye in which matters of threatening and grand jury were brought in. He said he related the conversations to Mr. Brown and the latter told him that charges would be preferred.
Mr. Qua—You are employed at city hall, in the water department?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—You had your pay raised recently?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—By whom?
A.—Mr. Brown.
Q.—How much?
A.—$200 a year.
Q.—Did Mr. Brown say anything to you about the effect on the French vote if he put out Mr. Lepine?

A.—No, sir.
Q.—Didn't he say that it was a political move on his part?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did you say to Mr. Foye that Mr. Brown had told you that he could not displease 1500 French voters?
A.—What did you say to Mr. Foye?
A.—That the impression was that Mr. Brown feared the French vote.
Q.—After having had a talk with Mr. Brown, you told Mr. Foye your impression was that Mr. Brown feared the French vote?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did you say to Mr. Foye that Mr. Brown would give him another position at city hall?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—What did you tell him?
A.—That I would do my best to assure another position for him at city hall in the event of other removals.
Mr. Brown—Up to the time that Mr. Foye said he would make a statement against me, was he always friendly to me in his talk to you?
A.—Not always; but he always gave me the impression that you were one of the most efficient men at city hall.
Q.—Did he ever say that I went out of office without a cent?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Did he ever tell you that I tried to interfere with his duties?
A.—No, sir.

Frank J. Day
The next witness called was Frank J. Day, another employee of the water department. He said Mr. Foye never said anything about his removal only that he felt badly over the loss of the job and that he had been half decent in the performance of his duties.
Mr. Brown—Mr. Foye never charged me with dishonesty?
A.—I never heard him say that.
The case was closed at 11:05 o'clock, at which time the arguments were begun. Mr. Regan was first to argue.

GEN. PERSHING AT TOMB OF NAPOLEON

PARIS, June 15.—It was an impressive scene as General Pershing stood yesterday morning with uncovered head at the tomb of Napoleon and paid silent tribute to one of the world's greatest commanders.

General Pershing, accompanied by his staff, was received at the Hotel des Invalides by General Niox, the military commander of the historic monument, and General Malterre.

Met War Veterans

As the American party entered the spacious grounds leading to the building they encountered a number of veterans of the French war, who have their home at this institution. One of these was a grizzled soldier of the Crimea, who still wore the ancient uniform and carried on his breast decorations of the old days. As the veteran saluted General Pershing, the general stopped and extended his hand, saying: "I am like myself to press the hand of an old soldier like yourself, who has seen such glorious service."

Passing into the Invalides, General Niox conducted the American commander within the vast rotunda, with its walls hung with battle flags and thence the party proceeded below to the crypt where the sarcophagus of Napoleon reposes.

Entrances to the crypt is rigorously limited and it is seldom that anyone is admitted except crowned heads or a former ruler, as in the case of ex-President Roosevelt when he visited Paris.

General Pershing stood for a moment gazing at the impressive spectacle. He was then conducted to the Artillery museum, where precious relics of Napoleon are preserved. General Pershing was particularly interested in Napoleon's sword, which the great commander brought from the battle of Jena.

He examined the sword closely and marked the difference from the modern weapon. He then took up Napoleon's Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor and examined that also with care. An hour was spent by the Americans in the building.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

The annual strawberry festival given under the direction of the ladies of the church was held in the vestry of the Pawtucket Congregational church last evening.

The evening's varied program, all in keeping with the occasion. Fair day, was highly appreciated by the large audience.

Resinol

the tested skin-treatment

If you want to experiment on your skin, there are plenty of treatments to experiment with. But if you want something whose value has been proven by years and years of successful use, if you want a treatment that doctors prescribe constantly, that you know contains nothing harsh or injurious, you will find it in Resinol Ointment, aided by Resinol Soap. It usually stops itching instantly, and rarely fails to clear away all trace of eczema or similar tormenting skin eruption.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 27-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Auto-Intoxication Explained!

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

There is no question but that many people suffer from auto-intoxication and poisoning. These are big words which are easily explained. Thru the failure of the liver to properly perform its work the twenty-seven feet of intestines become clogged. This stagnation throws poisons into the blood and the circulation, and one suffers from bad breath, foul taste in the mouth, and even yellow-coated tongue, headache, nausea or fullness. Gas often presses the diaphragm against the heart and causes pain there, or acid dyspepsia follows; often the inactive liver causes yellow skin and eyes, and one feels languid, tired and debilitated. At such times some people are advised by their doctors to take a mineral oil, often called "Russian Oil," but experiments by R. F. McDonald have shown, as lately reported in a government publication of the U. S. Public Health Service, that mineral oil may act as a irritant that produces gastro-intestinal disturbances and that it may cause tissue proliferation, stimulating cancer.

A better method, which I always advise, is to take a thousand or two exercize as possible, drink half a pint of hot water morning and night and plenty of water between meals and take a pleasant laxative pill occasionally. Such a one is made up of the May-apple, of vegetable calomel, and other concentrated herb extracts that give tone to the bowels. This was first made and sold by almost all druggists nearly 80 years ago as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pills. Such simple means will remove that bugbear, "auto-intoxication," constipation and the ill that follow, by favoring healthy action.

diene, "Marriage of Prince Flutlerby," a two-act operetta, given by the church young folks, was a feature number and received worthy recognition from the appreciative audience.

Shortly after 7 o'clock luscious strawberries were served, under the general direction of Mrs. James Trevors. The entertainment program followed, including the "Marriage of Prince Flutlerby," which was given under the direction of Mrs. S. W. Shaw and Miss Cora Cummins. It was well done, all members of the large cast doing their bit in commendable manner. Those taking part were: "Prince Flutlerby," Marion Garnett; "King Clovis," W. Bartlett; "Queen Clotilde," Amy French; "Prince Flutlerby," Mildred Cameron; "Nurse Boodle," Grace Mansfield; "Herakl Marter Jack," J. Coburn; guard, Archie Grant; train bearers, Ruth Ball and Mabel Donnett; maids of honor, Lorna Shaw, Mildred Entwistle, Alice Courtney, Ruth Carter, Czarina Bartlett, Dorothy Ellis, Ethel Armstrong and Ruth Cook; house maids, Grace Coburn, Sarah Mason, Doris Rigby, Lois Braden, Ethel Vance and Gertrude Caldwell.

A vocal song by Miss Marion Garnett also provided a pleasing number. The singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and flag drill by a group of young folks brought the event to a fitting close.

WESTFORD MAN SHOT

Michael Fay of Westford was shot by a Sixth regiment guard on the Shawmut avenue bridge of the Boston & Albany railroad in Boston Wednesday night when he failed to halt when ordered. The military authorities report that Fay was loitering about the bridge, taunting the guards and that, when he was ordered to move on, he refused to enter the track. He was called upon to halt and when he refused to obey the command the guard fired. Fay was taken to the city hospital where it was found that the wound is not serious.

TWO PERSONS PROSTRATED IN HAVENHILL ON FIRST HOT DAY OF THE YEAR

BOSTON, June 15.—Boston yesterday experienced the hottest day of the year so far. The mercury touched 83 degrees in mid-afternoon and sent thousands of city dwellers scurrying to nearby beaches and river resorts.

The first heat prostrations of the year were reported during the day from Havenhill, where two persons were overcome by the hot sun and required medical treatment.

Cloudy weather came toward night, but for today is predicted generally fair weather. Saturday will be fair, with moderate west to northwest winds. Yesterday's minimum temperature was 58 degrees, but high humidity made the day seem warmer than it actually was.

FOOT CRUSHED

Frank Gounish, employed at the Lowell Bleachery, had his left foot crushed while at work last night. The ambulance was summoned and he was taken to St. John's hospital.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

A meeting of the Lowell Council of Religious Education was held last evening at the First Trinitarian Congregational church and the report of the committee on permanent organization was accepted and the constitution recommended adopted with a few amendments. A nominating committee consisting of Rev. W. S. Jacobs, Miss Fannie Murphy and Mrs. Charles Davis was appointed to report at an adjourned meeting Monday evening.

MAY CLOSE HARVARD UNION

CAMBRIDGE, June 15.—The Harvard Union, social centre of the undergraduates at the university, has been losing membership and running behind in its finances to such an extent that it is considered advisable to close it next year, the administrative board reported yesterday. The fact that most of the upper class men probably will be absent because of military service is a consideration in the board's decision. It was recommended that membership in the union be made compulsory on all students and that the university itself take over all responsibilities.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION NOT TO INTERFERE IN WAR TIME TRAIN REDUCTIONS

BOSTON, June 15.—The Massachusetts public service commission will not interfere for the present in the proposed war-time reductions in passenger train service on railroads, it was stated in an official memorandum made public last night. "In reaching this conclusion," the commission reported, "we have been influenced by the fact that the companies have apparently endeavored to exercise a reasonable discrimination in the selection of trains which might best be eliminated. Since the changes were first advertised, the Boston & Maine railroad has agreed to restore many trains which it had proposed to discontinue, and similar modifications are still being made by this and by the other companies."

EIGHT FRENCH VESSELS SUNK BY MINE OR SUBMARINE DURING WEEK ENDING JUNE 14

PARIS, June 14.—Four French ships of more than 1500 tons, one under that size and three fishing boats were sunk by mine or submarine during the week ending June 14. Six ships were unsuccessfully attacked during the same period while 1031 vessels of all nations entered French ports and 1015 left.

EXPLAINS AIMS OF AMERICAN MISSION WHICH ARRIVED IN PETROGRAD YESTERDAY

PETROGRAD, via London, June 15.—David R. Francis, the American ambassador, issued to the press yesterday a long statement explaining the aims of the American mission headed by Edwin Root, which arrived in Petrograd yesterday.

"Among the members of the mission," says the communiqué, "is not one person who pursues any personal financial or commercial aims, or who desires to influence Russian internal affairs."

FRANCE HAVING DIFFICULTY IN PRONOUNCING GENERAL PERSHING'S NAME

PARIS, June 15.—In their columns of description of the arrival of Gen. Pershing and his staff the Paris newspapers found room yesterday to enlighten the public on the proper pronunciation of the general's name, a name which, as the Figaro says, is "not one easily enunciated in the accent of Normandy."

There was much diversity in the pronunciation among the populace, the favorite rendering being "Pareshang."

"But," adds the Figaro, "it will be common knowledge today that the name of the American general who comes to fight beside our soldiers is pronounced 'Perurichigne.'"

PLANS FOR GREAT RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Detailed preparations for the great Red Cross campaign which is to be held in Lowell all next week are practically completed. Although the personnel of the ten teams which are to solicit funds has not yet been announced, a tentative organization has been formed and it is felt that there will be few departures from this line-up when the campaign finally gets under way. The first gun of the campaign will be fired Monday evening when there will be a general meeting of all connected with the campaign at Memorial hall at 6 o'clock. Dinner will be served, and the assignment of work and final instructions will be given out. Postal cards have been sent to all those who are expected to attend, and it is requested that those be answered as soon as possible.

John H. Murphy, office manager of the campaign, is in need of three competent stenographers who are willing to volunteer their services for Saturday. Applications should be made to Mr. Murphy at 15 Shattuck street as soon as possible.

Following is the manner in which the campaign will be conducted according to present plans:

Monday night, 6 o'clock: Dinner and meeting at Memorial hall. Assignment of duties, distribution of campaign material and verbal instructions. Music and a bit of entertainment. One speech from a qualified official. Report of initial contributions.

Tuesday: All day and evening devoted to team work and campaigning.

Wednesday noon: Luncheon at 12. Reports of teams and final tabulation of results. Campaign work all the rest of the time.

Thursday: All day and evening devoted to team work and campaigning.

Friday noon: Luncheon at 12. Reports of teams and second tabulation of results. Campaign work all the rest of the time.

Saturday: Special effort of team workers to clean up the tasks assigned.

Sunday: A final word from the church pulpits.

Monday night: Final dinner 6 o'clock. Everyone to be present and finish the campaign with every assigned task done and every dollar reported.

The committee will report to Washington after each tabulation on the results attained.

Uncle Sam Invites You to Visit His National Parks

The Government has done big things this past year in adding to the interest of the National Parks.

Many new trails have been laid out in Glacier so that interesting places heretofore inaccessible may now be visited. Automobiles are universal in Yellowstone, taking the place of the uncomfortable and slow-going horse stages, a matter for rejoicing by visitors, and the "Cody Road"—eastern exit from the Yellowstone—has been perfected so that its marvelous scenery can be viewed from comfortable automobiles, over glorious Shoshone Canyon. Don't miss the Cody Road!

Let me tell you in detail of the opportunity to visit Glacier, Yellowstone, Cody Road, Rocky Mountain (Estes) Park, Denver and Colorado Springs (with Pike's Peak and Garden of the Gods near by) all on the lines of a single great railroad system—the Burlington Route—the big, prosperous, well-managed railroad of the West. One ticket over one railroad. A glorious trip!

T. R. FLAYS GERMAN LANGUAGE PAPERS

LINCOLN, Neb., June 15.—With all the vigor at his command, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, addressing several thousand persons assembled on the capitol grounds yesterday afternoon, the last day of the semi-centennial celebration of Nebraska, strove to drive home the fundamental truths of the doctrine of Americanism. His speech was tempered with kindly consideration for those of foreign blood in the United States, but he was emphatic in pointing out the duty of every American at the present time.

One of Mr. Roosevelt's digressions from his written address was to flay the German language newspapers of the country. "These newspapers printed in German are a fit subject for the attention of the censor," he said. "I think the English language, seeing it is our

Store Order Checks

Increase the Purchasing Power of the Dollar For Credit Buyers

Our customers buy everything at the big cash stores, at the very lowest cash prices, and get more for their money than do credit buyers who do not avail themselves of our Store Order Check System of buying.

Department stores, men's, women's and children's clothing, shoes and other stores, have now opened their doors to all our customers who desire to purchase, on credit, on the $1.00 a week or partial payment plan.

Thousands of people who would not think of buying on credit are attracted by the money-saving opportunity presented by our modern credit service at the bargain sales of the big cash stores that are now going on.

For instance: In reading the advertisements of mark down sales of the big stores, a woman sees a big bargain for herself or any member of the family, that may be needed.

Having no ready money when these bargains are presented does not necessarily mean that she must go without the bargain or pay a greater price for it later. All she has to do to get her bargain and save her money is to use our Store Order Check and pay as she likes.

TRAINING CANTONMENTS HAVE BEEN SELECTED BY WAR DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Four sites for war army divisional cantonments were approved yesterday, completing the list of 16 points at which military towns are to be built by Sept. 1, when the first draft troops will be called to the colors.

At each cantonment a full division will be given 16 preliminary training before being sent to Europe for final instructions behind the fighting lines. They will be located as follows:

Ayer, Mass.; Yaphank, Long Island, N. Y.; Wrightstown, N. J.; Annapolis, Md.; Petersburg, Va.; Atlanta, Ga.; Columbia, S. C.; Chillsahe, Ky.; Louisville, Ky.; Battle Creek, Mich.; Little Rock, Ark.; Rockford, Ill.; Des Moines, Ia.; Fort Riley, Kas.; Fort Sam Houston, Tex.; American Lake, Wash.

In addition to these the following six of 16 camp sites for divisions of the National Guard have been formally announced:

Fort Worth, Tex.; Waco, Tex.; Houston, Tex.; Fort Sill, Okla.; Deming, N. M.; Linda Vista, Cal.

It is probable that a seventh National Guard camp will be established in conjunction with the national army cantonment at American Lake, Wash., but the war department has not said the final word on this point as yet.

A start already has been made on the enormous construction task ahead of the war department and the council of national defense.

FIRST PROSECUTION IN NEW ENGLAND FOR FAILURE TO REGISTER JUNE 5

BOSTON, June 15.—The first prosecution in New England of a man charged with refusal to register for the selective draft resulted yesterday in the holding for the federal grand jury of Frank Metchian of Norwood. Arrested first because of alleged efforts to induce fellow workmen not to register, it was charged specifically that Metchian himself refused to register when tendered the official card at the East Cambridge jail. The defendant testified that he had filled out the card, but would not sign it, because he was a socialist and was opposed to war. He was returned to jail when he was unable to furnish $2000 bonds.

ARREST SEVEN ON CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY TO SMUGGLE TOBACCO INTO COUNTRY

BOSTON, June 15.—The arrest of seven men at New Bedford on a charge of conspiring to smuggle tobacco into this country was announced by United States Marshal Mitchell here yesterday. Four of the men are members of the crew of market ships plying between New Bedford and the Cape Verde islands. They were held in bonds of $500 each for a hearing on June 20.

DRIFTED IN CAPSIZED BOAT FOR SIXTEEN DAYS WITHOUT FOOD—MANY LIVES LOST

LONDON, June 15.—Two further instances of the inhumanity of German submarine methods have just been published. Ten members of the crew of the British steamer Kariba, which was torpedoed without warning 230 miles from land on April 12, were picked up after 12 days spent in an open boat. For seven days they had been without food and two of the survivors died after their rescue. Another boat with 21 men has been heard from, and it is feared it was lost with all aboard.

The British steamer Cathness was torpedoed without warning on April 12,

WHILE 240 MILES FROM LAND. THE CAPTAIN AND 20 MEN WERE DROWNED AND THE REMAINDER OF THE CREW WERE FOUND IN A CAPSIZED BOAT WHICH THEY HAD DRIFTED FOR 16 DAYS WITHOUT FOOD. ONLY TWO WERE ALIVE WHEN THE BOAT WAS PICKED UP.

DISTILLING OF WHISKEY IS DOOMED—PROHIBITORY TAX UPON BEVERAGE FOODS

WASHINGTON, June 15.—A prohibitory tax on foodstuffs used in making beverages, tentatively agreed to last week by the senate finance committee, was still further increased yesterday, and then was formally written into the war tax bill. The new rate is $60 per hundred pounds instead of $20 per bushel, and representatives of the distillers declare it unquestionably would be effective in forcing suspension of the distilling industry. The section as approved also prohibits importation of distilled beverages.

Other liquor taxes increases were approved by the committee yesterday virtually without change from the house schedules. The manufacturers' tax of 5 per cent. on athletic goods, cameras, patent medicines, perfumery and cosmetics was reduced to 2 per cent., and a sub-tax on scalpers' sales of tickets was adopted, making the rate from 5 to 50 per cent. instead of 40 per cent. flat.

Tomorrow the troublesome income, excess profits and publishers' taxes will be taken up. The committee now hopes to present the re-drafted bill in the senate early next week.

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING STORM FORCES RECESS OF BOTH HOUSES

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Thunder, lightning, rain and hail which enveloped the capital for more than an hour yesterday, forced both houses of congress to recess while the storm raged because the legislators could not make themselves heard above the din.

BALTIMORE FEDS
DROP SUIT

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—Convicted, according to counsel for the plaintiffs, that organized baseball had entered into no conspiracy to wreck its business, the Baltimore Federal League club today dropped its $300,000 anti-trust damage suit against the American and National leagues, the national commission and other defendants. It was announced there was no settlement out of court.

When the United States district court opened for the fifth day of the trial, Stuart S. Janney, chief counsel for the Baltimore club, addressing Judge Dickinson, said:

"After a full consideration of this case last night by counsel for the plaintiff, circumstances have arisen which make us desirous to discontinue it. We direct to ask leave of the court, therefore, formally to file a motion of discontinuance. I would say that there has been no settlement of the case."

In reply to a question of the court, whether there was any objection on the part of the defense to a discontinuance, George Wharton Pepper, chief counsel for organized baseball, said:

"We feel very great gratification at the decision of counsel for the plaintiff. We should like to say to you that it is exactly as Mr. Janney has stated in no sense the result of a settlement, agreement or a suggestion of settlement, that the action is taken after a consideration of the whole record and of the entire situation, and for reasons which the plaintiff regards as sufficient."

The court then granted the discontinuance.

TENDERED MUD SHOWER

A nurse of one of the local hospitals, whose name could not be learned, was spotted with mud by a passing auto truck early this afternoon in East Merrimack street, just beyond the railroad crossing. At this point there are a few holes filled with muddy water. It might be well for the street department to have these gullies filled with something more solid. The young lady was dressed in white and she presented a speckled appearance after the mishap. She was graciously conveyed to her home by Contractor Daniel H. Walker who happened to be passing in his auto.

LARGE QUANTITIES OF CONDENSED MILK BOUGHT RECENTLY BY GERMAN AGENTS

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Large quantities of condensed or evaporated milk have been bought recently by German agents and shipped to Germany through neutral ports, the department of commerce was informed today by the war committee of the condensed milk industry. Fearing detection if they purchased from manufacturers or jobbers, the German agents have canvassed retail stores and paid retail prices. Shipments were made to Norwegian and Danish ports, where ordinarily little American milk is bought. The milk manufacturers' war committee will seek to aid the government in preventing future shipments.

CONVENTION TO REMAIN IN SESSION—SECTARIAN AMENDMENT FILED

BOSTON, June 15.—The constitutional convention definitely went on record yesterday against an adjournment because of the order offered by former Speaker Walker amending the report of the committee on rules, so as to provide that after July 18 "no motion to adjourn for more than seven days shall be entertained," finally disposed of the movement to postpone the convention.

SINKING OF FIVE NORWEGIAN
SHIPS WITH HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE ANNOUNCED

LONDON, June 15.—The sinking of several more Norwegian vessels with considerable loss of life is reported by the Norwegian foreign office, as quoted in Copenhagen. According to this information the following craft have been sunk by German submarines: Sigurn, steamer, 2338 tons gross; crew rescued. Camnet, sailing vessel, loaded with pit props, driven ashore and seriously damaged by gun fire; all the crew missing with the exception of one man whose body was found. Vinæs, steamer, 1107 tons, only four men saved. Sylvia, sailing vessel, 140 tons, crew rescued. Candace, sailing vessel 335 tons; crew rescued.

RT. REV. BISHOP BRADLEY'S
SILVER JUBILEE TO BE OBSERVED SUNDAY

Invitations have been received in this city, by friends of Right Rev. Bernard J. Bradley, LL.D., president of Mt. St. Mary's college, Emmitsburg, Md., to attend the silver jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood, which will take place at the college on June 17th. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at 8.30 a. m. at the college church. As the anniversary falls three days before the annual commencement exercises, a great gathering of the alumni will be on hand to congratulate Monsignor Bradley, who has not only been a priest for quarter of a century, but has been connected with the college through the entire period. Monsignor Bradley is a native of Braintree, Mass., and after receiving his early education in that town entered Mt. St. Mary's college as a student. Upon finishing his classical course, he entered the seminary connected with the college and was ordained in 1892 by His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons. During his four years in theology, Monsignor Bradley served as prefect of the Junior department of the college and taught Junior classes, and upon his ordination he accepted a position as a teacher at his alma mater, in due course of time becoming president of the college. A pleasing feature in connection with the event about to be celebrated is the fact that this year's attendance at Mt. St. Mary's college is the largest in the history of the institution, and that covers a period of 100 years.

PERSHING GOES TO THE FRONT

PARIS, June 14.—Although Gen. Pershing's stay in Paris was naturally filled to overflowing with social affairs he managed nevertheless to utilize odd moments for business. It is understood that he will soon leave for an extended trip to the front.

Following his attendance at the chamber of deputies the general and his staff motored to an aviation field to watch aerial evolutions of French experts. After an hour with the aviators General Pershing returned to Paris and conferred with the minister of marine. After a rest he went to keep a dinner engagement with Minister of War Painleve.

While both meetings with the ministers were largely of a social order it is understood that they afforded the American commander an opportunity to at least broach the work into which he and his following are so eager to plunge.

Gen. Pershing stole a brief period between his visits to Admiral Lachaze and M. Painleve to confer with the French and then the American newspaperman, life consented graciously, but not too willingly, to be sketched from life by a young Parisian woman artist, who worked as the correspondents pilled him with questions.

Gen. Pershing spoke almost joyfully of the prospect of being able to take up his work in the front. It was characteristic that during his talk he never used the first personal pronoun, but always referred to "us."

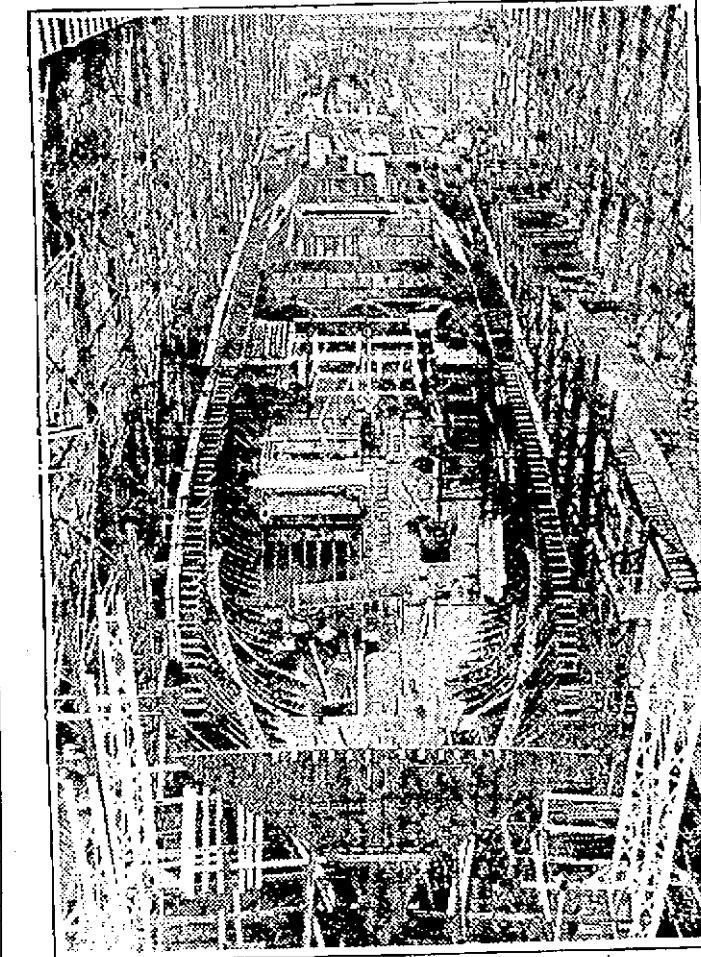

HOOT PRICES IN MEXICO
MEXICO CITY, June 15.—The retail price of tobacco on all grades and classes advanced on June 1 in Mexico. This was caused by the increase in revenue taxes which, on imported tobacco, amounted to 100 per cent. Native tobacco taxes were increased in lesser degree but sufficient to make a material difference in the retail price. Well known brands of American tobaccos and cigars sell for from three to four times the price paid for them at retail in the United States.

On June 1, the Mexico City street cars increased their fares 20 per cent.

NEW JAPANESE RAILWAY BOND

TOKIO, June 15.—The subscriptions to the new railway bonds, which the Japanese government has just floated on behalf of the Imperial Government railway, total about $21,172,875. According to a statement issued by the Bank of Japan.

Subscriptions from the public were under $10,000,000. The rest of the bonds were assigned to the underwriting banks. General investors, anticipating the issue of Entente loans, had under which no liquors could be shipped into the province of New Brunswick for personal use, was withdrawn by the legislature today by direction of the government.

WAR FREIGHTER RUSHED TO COMPLETION

One of the many steel and wood freighters now being rushed for service on the Atlantic to overcome the U-boat menace, is here shown nearing completion. The birdseye view gives an idea of the capacity of these big ships.

At more advantageous terms, have apparently been unwilling to take up the issue.

SAVE THOSE EWE LAMBS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—Save every ewe lamb possible for breeding is the urgent message the department of agriculture is sending to sheep owners. Market for slaughter only those being absolutely worthless for breeding stock. There is a strong demand among farmers for breeding stock and owners of ewe lambs should have no trouble finding a breeding market for them through county agents or the state agricultural colleges. Sheep specialists of the department believe that although prices for breeding stock now are high, those who start production of wool and mutton on a moderate scale will have no cause to regret purchasing breeding stock at present figures.

SUPPLY FOOD TO POOR

LONDON, June 15.—Mrs. Lloyd George, wife of the premier, made a tour to other day of the new communal kitchens established in the poorer sections of the London district. At one of them in the east end, Mrs. George tasted the fare and pronounced it good enough for her own household.

The communal kitchens are being set up by the municipalities in various parts of the country. The aim is to supply food to the poor at nominal prices and to make the institutions self-supporting.

MAN ON U. S. SHIP GAVE
TIP TO GERMAN SPIES

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 14.—Capt. Frank Lauren, of the American schooner Barbara, sank by a German submarine May 21, while on a voyage from Port Arthur, Tex., for Spezia, reported on his arrival here today that spies at Gibraltar in some way obtained information regarding the movements of his vessel and conveyed it to the commander of the U-boat by which he was attacked. One member of the crew was arrested at Gibraltar on Capt. Lauren's complaint. There was reason to believe, the captain said, that he had been in communication with German spies. It was known, he said, that the Barbara would proceed from Spezia to Gibraltar and the member of the crew, whose name was not revealed, formally was charged by the Italian authorities with furnishing information to the enemy.

While approximately 70 miles from Cape Trafalgar, Capt. Lauren was startled by a shell that whizzed over the masts of the Barbara and a moment later a submarine appeared close. Mrs. Lauren, the captain's wife, got in a small boat with him and pulled alongside the submarine. The men aboard the submarine opened fire. The marksmanship was poor. After 37 shots had been fired, with the Barbara still afloat, the Germans went aboard and started fires fore and aft.

Capt. Lauren, his wife and crew had been adrift 20 hours when picked up by a Spanish brig and landed at Gibraltar. Mrs. Lauren and seven members of the crew came here with the Barbara's commander.

STATE HOSPITAL CLINIC

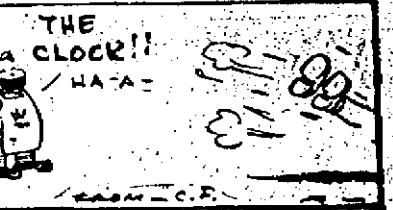

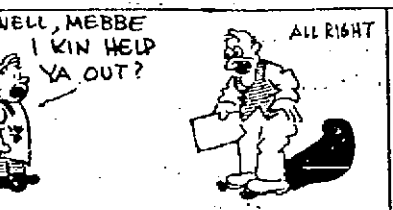

Under the auspices of the Norfolk State hospital for inebriates a clinic will be held at the aldermanic chamber on next Wednesday evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock. This will offer an opportunity to all who are interested to find out just what is being done at this hospital, the method of treatment and other matters in connection with the work of curing the drink habit.

HELD JOINT MEETING

A joint meeting of the five local councils of Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Acadie, Carillon, J. N. Jacques, St. Therese and Notre Dame de Lourdes, took place last evening in C.M.A.C. hall with several hundred men and women in attendance.

The meeting was presided over by Joseph F. Montminy and the principal speakers were President General Henri J. Ledoux of Nashua, N. H., and Organiser J. E. Croteau of Augusta, Me.

The result of the recent recruiting activities in this city was announced and the winners were Miss Flore Donette, St. Therese council first prize; Mrs. Clara Morier, Adolphus, Bowdoin, second prize; Miss Alice Flouffe, third prize; Sylvio Nadan, fourth prize; and Mrs. Henri Guerin, Miss Mrs. Miss Aurora Cornillier and others.

JEALOUSY OF JAPAN

Japan appears to have taken offense at a note from Washington to China, urging a settlement of internal troubles there in progress. It is alleged that a distorted version of the note bearing a New York date, and published in a Japanese paper, has caused the misunderstanding.

Very naturally Japan feels that she should be consulted by the Washington authorities before they issue any important diplomatic document bearing upon Chinese matters in which Japan may be directly interested. The press of Tokyo drew a striking contrast in bringing forward the unpleasant situation that might be brought about if Japan interfered in Mexican affairs without consulting the United States.

The fact that any false or distorted version of a diplomatic document could be cabled from this country to any other, shows the need of a strict censorship, not only of press associations, but of cable dispatches. This is necessary for the protection of the government, and its extreme importance is well illustrated in the present instance.

No trouble will result from the episode once it is explained to Japan, but the delicate nature of our relations with Japan and the great need of extreme caution on our part in dealing with eastern matters are clearly shown. It is necessary always to keep in mind that the Monroe doctrine is still in force and that its very existence causes such ambitious nations as Japan to be more ready to stand upon their dignity when they find the United States interfering with conditions at their doors.

WERNER HORN'S CASE

In a Boston court Wednesday, Werner Horn, lieutenant of a Prussian regiment, was convicted of violating the interstate commerce laws in transporting dynamite from one state to another. He was detected in an attempt to blow up the Vanceboro bridge between Maine and Canada early in 1915. He now pleads justification as an act of war, but the United States was not at war when the act was committed.

The maximum penalty for the charge on which he was tried is a prison sentence of 18 months and a fine of $4000. Sentence was deferred pending an appeal on the grounds that the defendant's act was justified as an act of war and that the Boston court has no jurisdiction in such a case. If it has not, the officers should turn the prisoner over to Canada as it was on the Canadian side that the explosion was set off.

There are a good many Horns, or men like him, in this country, but now that we are at war, if they are caught, their punishment will be very different from that prescribed for violation of interstate traffic laws.

OPPOSING THE FOOD BILL

There is opposition to the food bill now before congress. Where does it come from? Mainly from the food speculators, and the bonding concerns that pre-empt the crops of the country before they are harvested. Some democratic senators are leaders in opposition to the Lever bill. They go so far as to dub Mr. Hoover as the man whom President Wilson substitutes for the constitution of the United States.

Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, who bitterly opposed the embargo on cotton, is a leader in opposition to the Lever bill. He is rapidly losing the confidence of the people of the country. How he stands with the people of his own state, we are unable to say. If he pursues his present policy much farther, he will have achieved a record that should place him side by side with the group of wild men who held out against a declaration of war when this nation had no alternative unless to relinquish her status as a great power jealous of her rights and ever ready to defend them.

THE RAID ON LONDON

The German airplane raid upon London, Wednesday, was the worst yet reported. It was probably intended as an answer to the recent allied attack upon the naval base at Ostend. With fifteen machines showering bombs upon the most congested part of the city, the execution during the fifteen minutes of its continuance was indeed frightful. Women and children as usual formed a large proportion of the victims. In one school ten children were killed and fifty injured. The aeroplanes certainly aimed the bombs accurately for the most crowded districts.

The raiders were too high for the anti-aircraft guns and the British craft that arose to give battle succeeded in bringing down but one of the German planes. London, it would seem, will be under the necessity of keeping a squadron of flying machines hovering over the city the greater part of the time in order to guard against the raiders.

WILL PLEAD FOR DEMOCRACY

The strong point in the leadership of President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has been, and is now, his opposition to allowing the organization of which he is the head, to be in the slightest degree under the control of socialists. In view of the fact that he has had many hard battles against the efforts of socialists to force the organization to accept their principles, it may be considered somewhat strange that he is allowing a representative of the organization to attend the conference of socialist bodies soon to be held at Petrograd. James Duncan, a member of the United States mission to Russia, will appear before the socialists to plead for democracy and national independence. There is good ground for the hope that Mr. Duncan will make a deep impression upon his hearers and that he may swing them into line for the loyal support of the government in the war.

CENSORSHIP LAW NEEDED

Scarcely a day passes without bringing up fresh evidence of the need of a censorship law that will prevent news of the private movements of the government from reaching the enemy. We hold that in the absence of a censorship law every such item that falls into the hands of any news association in the country, may find its way to the enemy. The Associated Press is no exception to this rule as the managers cannot vouch for the loyalty of its clients or of the employees of those clients. This and other similar bodies send out articles which should not be sent out. Even to warn papers not to publish certain items, is giving information of private matters that may get into unfriendly hands and thus reach the enemy.

CONSTITUTIONAL PIECEMEAL

The constitutional convention now in session has voted wisely in deciding to submit separate amendments to the people for adoption. Very often it happens that a measure otherwise good is killed because of some objectionable feature. This is notoriously true of bills voted by the governor and even of some vetted by the president of the United States. The action of the convention will enable the people to reject objectionable features in the new constitution, a plan that is calculated to give us a system of organic law as near as possible to what we want. We can adopt or reject the amendments piecemeal and more intelligently than by voting upon them as one article.

THE LIBERTY LOAN

The Liberty Loan has been oversubscribed. This is good news. The fact augurs well for our part in the war. It will not give Germany any cause to come out with the statement that her claim that the American people are not behind President Wilson in this war, has been verified. On the contrary it will prove to all the world that the people are ready to respond to every demand of the government for the resources necessary to bring victory to our arms.

WELCOME TO GEN. PERSHING

Major General Pershing received a most cordial welcome in Paris. The French are glad to see him of course, but they long for the time when the American general will lead an army to the western battlefield to assist in defeating Germany. That day is not far distant.

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quart of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

versal satisfaction to my patients. My charges being $5 for prescription, we are now quits.—Washington Star.

Getting One's Haircut

An observing barber claims that the excitement due to the war is helping the barber trade generally. "Men who formerly had their hair cut every six weeks or two months are now coming in more often, while the men who used to be satisfied with two or three shaves a week have increased the number very materially."

I am no student, and will not attempt to explain why this condition prevails. I only know that it does. And another thing a great many don't know is that men are just as regular as clockwork in having haircuts. Besides, they don't seem to realize they have the habit. A few weeks ago I made out a card of 10 men who would be in during the week, and placed it in an envelope with some friends during an argument to prove my statement. On Saturday night of the same week this envelope was opened, and seven of the 10 had been customers during the week.—Columbus Dispatch.

Invitation to Sinners

At almost every night meeting in the Sunday tabernacle there has been an overflow of from 500 to 2000 persons, which condition has impressed itself upon the mind of Rev. Dr. Daniel H. Martin. Dr. Martin is the pastor of the Port Washington Presbyterian church, and at a meeting recently he announced that he considered it an splendid idea to throw the church open at night for those who

How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

sought in vain to get into the nearby tabernacle.

Dr. Martin, after hearing the suggestion highly approved, asked that a suitable sign be agreed upon which when placed outside the church would make it clear that those disappointed at the tabernacle might find religious haven within. "If you cannot get into Billy's barn come into Daniel's den."

All of which seems to indicate that the tabernacle vernacular is catching.

—New York Herald.

The following ballad was written by a prominent New York theatrical man who has recently joined the army and who expresses his opinion of the military life as seen from the inside. The sentiments expressed are undoubtedly representative of the feelings of many Lowell boys who have offered to "go West" for their country if there be any need of it.

THE ROOKIES' LAMENT

No more apple pie or dumplings. When the bugle blows for "chow" No more apple pie or dumplings. For we're in the army now. And they feed us beans for breakfast. And at noon we have 'em too. And at night they fill our tummies With a good old army stew.

RED SOX ARE SLIPPING SHUT OUT BY ST. LOUIS

BOSTON, June 15.—St. Louis shut out Boston 3 to 0 yesterday. Groom allowed Boston three hits but only one man was able to reach second. On the other hand, St. Louis hit Leonard's offerings at will, getting 10 hits for three runs. The first score was made in the second inning on Severald's single, Marsons' sacrifice and Pratt's single in the sixth. Severald tripled and after two were out Johnson was passed and stole second. Groom's two batters to center field scored Severald and Johnson. Not one of the St. Louis outfielders had a putout.

IN THE TRENCHES TO "CALM" HIS NERVES

Lowell Man Asked for Front Line Trenches as Nerve Restorer

Request of Chatkoff Makes War Officials Sit Up and Take Notice

The only man in France who ever asked to be sent to the front line trenches as a cure for "nerves" was a Lowell man. His name is Herman Chatkoff, an American member of the aviation corps. Up to the time he enlisted, Chatkoff was employed by the Reliable Furniture company in Middlesex street. He has been twice a member of the Foreign Legion. He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., but, as before stated, was living in Lowell and employed here, just before the war began. In the early days of the war Chatkoff joined the legion and after pro-

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain muflified coconut oil (which is pure and entire) is much better than the most expensive soap or shampoo, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain muflified coconut oil (which is pure and entire) is much better than the most expensive soap or shampoo, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

SWOBODA NOW HELD FOR COMPANY M STILL IN NEED OF MORE MEN

PARIS, June 15.—Raymond Ruff Swoboda, who was held for some time by the Paris police in the spring of 1916 on suspicion of causing a fire on board the French liner La Touraine, has been arrested by the Zurich police, according to the Zurich correspondent of the Petit Parisien. Swoboda is accused of recruiting spies to work against France and is alleged to be in close relations with a Geneva business man who was recently sentenced to life imprisonment in Paris for espionage.

Swoboda, when arrested in Paris in March, 1915, had an American passport and claimed to be an American citizen. At his trial it was said that his real name was Schwind and that he was a German reserve officer. He was finally discharged and ordered expelled from France. He applied to the American embassy against this expulsion but, after an investigation the American authorities refused to interfere.

SINN FELLERS CONTEST SEAT VACATED BY DEATH OF MAJOR WILLIAM REDMOND
LONDON, June 15.—The Sinn Féiners of East Clare have decided to contest the seat in parliament vacated by the death at the front of Major William Redmond. "They have chosen as candidate Edward de Valera, formerly professor in Dublin university and sentenced to death for his connection with the Sinn Féin revolt. His sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life and he is now in jail."

At the Westford street armory the spotlight has turned for a time on Co. M of the ninth regiment. During the recent recruiting campaign, this unit maintained a position somewhat in the background, but now the boys who represented Lowell on the Mexican border last summer are out to bring the company up to war strength, and a strenuous campaign is being conducted under Sergt. McDermott. One advantage of enlisting in Co. M is that the recruits are sent to Framingham with Sergt. McDermott, and thus, long waiting around the armory is avoided.

Yesterday 25 men were examined by Capt. Lassan, and of these nine passed. Today these men left for Framingham with Sergt. McDermott. Sergt. McDermott later returned and will be at the armory at all times until his company is filled.

There was practically nothing doing so far as the sixth regiment is concerned outside of preparations for the departure of Co. C and Co. G for Framingham tomorrow.

Recruiting For the Navy
The officers of the local recruiting station for the navy in Merrimack Square are certainly a generously patriotic crowd. A total of $1450 has been invested in Liberty bonds by the boys on duty there, and is distributed as follows: Chief Yeoman Tucker, $350; H. Scoville, $200; William Nitschke, $600; W. J. Frazier, $200; Roy M. Odgen, $100. Besides this, Capt. Herschell has invested $3000 in bonds for his family. This is certainly a satisfactory demonstration that the patriotism of these men does not stop at dollars and cents.

H. Scoville of the local station went to Ringling Brothers' circus in Lawrence yesterday and as a result of a little solicitation on his part, he succeeded in having over 35 young men promise to come to Lowell and talk over the matter of becoming jackies with the local officers.

NOT ONE IN TOWN OF PERU CLAIMED EXEMPTION FROM DRAFT

PERU, June 15.—The town of Peru has a proud record in connection with the recent registration. There were 11 young men registered. Not a man of eligible age failed. But what is still better, of the 11 men who registered there was not one who claimed exemption.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

W. S. Rice, the Rupture Specialist of Adams, N. Y., will send his personal representative, to supply the needs of any who require home treatment for rupture. Anyone interested should call at the Richardson Hotel and receive free information and examination. It will cost you nothing unless you want to be properly fitted. Dr. Branch will have a full line of Appliances for all forms of rupture, including special supports for use following operations. If in need of a Special Appliance, call and have your measurements taken and find out what you need.

DR. E. C. BRANCH

— TO —

Thousands report having been cured by the Rice Method at a very slight cost. Don't fail to find out just what can be done for you. It will cost you nothing to investigate.

Remember the date and place, June 18 and 19, Richardson Hotel, Lowell, Mass., and don't let anything keep you from seeing Dr. Branch while you have the chance. It will mean a great deal to you.

FLAG DAY OBSERVANCE BY LOWELL ELKS

Lowell lodge of Elks added more laurels to its already long list when it conducted the most extensive Flag day celebration that Lowell has ever experienced. On account of the lateness of the hour when the ceremonies had been concluded, The Sun was unable to give an account of the program in its entirety in yesterday's edition.

Usually the Elks hold their Flag day ceremonies indoors, and it is generally a strictly lodge affair, but yesterday over 5000 people participated in the exercises on the South common. The patriotic element was predominant in every phase of the celebration, from the start of the parade, headed by several military bodies, to the singing of "America" as the concluding feature of the exercises.

The parade started from the Elks' headquarters in Middle street shortly after 2 o'clock. Following a platoon of police, in command of Lieut. H. Martin Connors, Chief Marshal Walter H. Fox and his staff appeared. The latter was made up of Lieut. Coleman of the Machine Gun company, Harry T. Roberts of the Fusiliers, Baker, first class, William Nitschke, U.S.N.; Thomas W. Bagley, Spanish War Veterans; Luther W. Faulkner, Boy Scouts of America; Louis Gentry, Sons of Veterans; and Alexander Planders, Post 129, G.A.R.

Preceded by the U. S. Cartridge Co. band, a platoon from the Machine Gun company, Battery E and the Lowell Elks formed the remainder of the parade. The Elks were led by Esquire James E. Donnelly, and made an attractive appearance in their plain branch suits. Each Elk carried a small American flag and wore the purple color of the order. It was a real midsummer turnout.

At the common every number was patriotic. Probably the most spectacular was the flag drill by high school girls under the direction of Miss Ethel V. Claves, and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the young ladies, who wore white dresses with a blending of patriotic colors, and as they danced to patriotic music, they offered an especially attractive sight. Miss Louise Harrigan as "Liberty" was especially attractive, and her number was warmly appreciated.

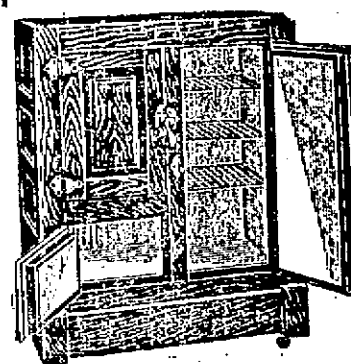

The Elks' ritual, always an impressive affair, was even more solemn than usual yesterday. The furnishings and equipment for the conducting of the ceremony had been brought from the clubhouse to the common, and their presence gave the occasion an unusual sanctity. The exercises were conducted by the officers of the lodge under the direction of Exalted Ruler Eugene Y. Brown.

Mayor O'Donnell and Congressman Rogers were the speakers of the day. Mayor O'Donnell spoke at length on the purpose of the occasion and dwelt on the history of the American flag. His address was full of interest, and held the crowd to the end. His address in full was published in yesterday's Sun.

Congressman Rogers spoke briefly on the significance of the flag, and explained some of the problems which we must meet in the course of the present war.

There were several musical numbers, including "The Story of Old Glory," a soprano solo by Nora Regan Langhitt; "The Star Spangled Banner," by Miss Longtin and chorus; "Your Country Needs You," by George Joy Hawthorn of New York; southern melodies by the Elks and chorus. Prayer was offered by Brother Victor Gordon, chaplain, and the Elks' tribute was given by Brother John P. Farley, P.E.R. The concluding feature was the singing of "America" by all present.

FOYE HEARING CLOSED BRIDGE CONDEMNED

The Foye hearing before the municipal council was resumed this morning at 8 o'clock and shortly after 11 o'clock all the evidence had been presented and counsel started on the arguments. In the course of this forenoon's session charges of graft and threats were made and considerable spicy evidence was introduced. The witnesses heard were Edward H. Foye, the petitioner and two employees of the water department, one of whom recently received an increase in wages of $200 a year from Commissioner Brown. Counsel for Mr. Foye requested Commissioners Brown and Warnock to testify, but they refused to be interrogated.

The hearing, which was also an adjourned meeting of the council, was opened by Mayor O'Donnell with all members present and the first matter taken up was the report of Mayor O'Donnell on the condition of the wooden bridge across Beaver brook connecting Pawtucketville with Centralville. The mayor said he had found the structure to be in a very dangerous condition and a menace to public safety. He recommended that the bridge be closed to traffic, and on motion of Mr. Warnock it was so voted. The Foye hearing was then continued.

Mr. Foye was called to the witness stand and questioned by Mr. Quinn, his brother, Arthur H. Foye, who went into business in July, 1916, and who is still in business. Witness said his brother conducted a wholesale business in Bridge street, a store formerly occupied by Mr. Katz. He said his brother has a storehouse at his home. He denied ever having interest in the Merrimack Tea Co.

Mr. Foye said his brother did business with concerns other than the city. Witness said that when goods were purchased from the Merrimack Tea Co. other similar supplies were purchased from F. J. McEvoy and Duffy. The latter conducted a tobacco, cigar, paper and confectionery store in Bridge street. He said the bills for goods purchased from McEvoy and Duffy were paid by the regular channels at city hall. The prices for goods purchased from McEvoy and Duffy were the same as those paid for goods purchased elsewhere.

A lot of requisitions were produced by Mr. Quinn, but Mr. Regan objected to their introduction. Requisitions sent to the purchasing agent's office while Mr. Foye was not in office. At this point Mr. Brown read a letter he received from Supt. Thomas of the water department in reference to the purchasing of goods, stating that all goods are purchased on requisitions by the purchasing agent and for the benefit of the agent the names of manufacturers are written on the requisitions. The department carries a large stock, but there are cases where emergency requires a speedy purchase of goods, such as fittings or broken pieces that have to be replaced. Mr. Thomas concluded by saying it would be hard to improve conditions in the perhaps an appreciation of this that has caused me to go to the Red Cross for I firmly believe that through the Red Cross we can only render a service to the people of our allies—to those who are today fighting for us—but we can bring forcefully to our own people a sense both of their obligation and their opportunity and I am optimistic enough to believe that the men and women of this country will, in a not far distant day, rejoice in the noblest and most patriotic demand that the Red Cross shall carry to the peoples then living of all our allies the heartfelt appreciation of what they have done for us. I am sure that such appreciation by every possible aid and support within their power to send.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Sacrificed which the war will bring is needed by America to lift its people to the spiritual exaltation developed in European warring nations, Henry P. Davison, chairman of the Red Cross war council, told the Washington chapter of the Red Cross today.

"I wish for no ill," he said, "but I hope and pray that whatever may be needed to arouse us to a sense of sacrifice and cleanse us from our selfishness will come to us."

Mr. Davison expressed doubt if more than one per cent. of Americans realize that we are today not only fighting for the principles upon which our republic was founded, but for our very existence.

People of England and France also were slow to change their ideals early in the war, he said but now, seeing as their own sufferings and the need of mankind had immeasurably increased. They seem to be without malice or design, envy or jealousy without social ambition—to be living on a higher and better plane. Even with their terrible sorrow and suffering they seem to be stronger and surer and more content to meet whatever may be given them to meet.

"The process of fire which has thus purified them has been for our account as well as their own. I hope you will not think me an idealist. I wish more practical in my thought. It is

BERLIN PAPER SAYS U-BOAT WAR SUCCEEDS—SAYS U. S. ENTERED TO SAVE ENGLAND

BERLIN, June 15, via London.—Under the caption "Submarine Warfare and War Costs," the North German Gazette has the following to say:

"In none of the warring countries has the question of war costs attracted that degree of attention which it deserves. How the warring countries are inclined to assert that the higher the war costs amount to the less attention they arouse and Lloyd George's word concerning the last silver bullets probably will never be confirmed."

"The entrance of the United States into the war is accounted for in no small degree by the circumstance that they have since become the victims of our enemies, whose bankruptcy they saw approaching, and desired to avert as far as possible. In connection with the participation in war of the United States and their far-reaching shipbuilding plans it is especially desirable to project the question of the costs of submarine warfare into public discussion. How to the material losses of our enemies compare with those we are suffering?" The answer is quite plain.

Offsetting the monstrous losses which the warring countries are losing daily in ships and cargoes, foremost of which are those of England, not to mention the costs of meeting the submarine war, our losses are almost infinitesimal. They consist only in lost U-boats and munitions. This wholly unequal proportion becomes more pronounced as the submarine campaign goes on. The more capital our enemies invest in shipbuilding the greater will be the ratio of values wiped out and to the extent the warring countries are unable to release all the prisoners taken in the Irish rebellion of Easter Sunday a year ago.

In making the announcement Andrew Bonar Law, government spokesman in the House of Commons, said that all Irish prisoners would be released without reservation.

RELEASE ALL TAKEN IN IRISH REBELLION

LONDON, June 15.—It was announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that the government had decided to release all the prisoners taken in the Irish rebellion of Easter Sunday a year ago.

Avalanche of Subscriptions In Final Hours From All Parts of the Country

Huge War Loan a Tremendous Success—Four Banner Districts, New York, Chicago, Cleveland and Boston Subscribe the Full $2,000,000,000 Offering Alone

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Liberty Loan has been tremendously over-subscribed. When the books closed at noon treasury officials estimated that the total would reach at least $2,500,000,000 and might reach $3,000,000,000.

Every federal reserve district with the possible exception of Atlanta and Kansas City appeared to have exceeded its minimum allotment. Reports from these two districts were slow in coming in. With thousands of banks to be heard from in the two districts, however, it seemed likely that the minimum allotment would be reached in each case.

from every section of the country told of an avalanche of small subscriptions at the last moment. Scores of small investors were standing in line at hundreds of banks throughout the country during the final hour. The small subscriber apparently had responded with an enthusiasm that exceeded the most sanguine hopes of officials.

Swelling the huge total by millions came the belated subscriptions of the banks held back till the last moment. The clerical forces of virtually every reserve bank were practically hurried under a landslide of eleventh hour subscriptions.

Millions Subscribed by Wire
Because of this situation, the exact total subscription may not be known for many hours. The full magnitude of the country's response even may not be measured for several days. Thousands of belated subscriptions, it is feared, may not reach the reserve banks till after the deadline of noon.

standard local time, and these must be included in making up the final totals showing the nation's response.

Millions of dollars, it was estimated, were transferred by telegraph from national and state banks and trust companies on behalf of their customers to the federal reserve banks. This transfer marked the measure of the last minute response of the small investor as the banks had forwarded the bulk of earlier subscriptions by mail.

Four Districts Subscribed $2,000,000,000
Four banner districts, New York, Chicago, Cleveland and Boston, appeared on the face of returns at noon to have subscribed the full $2,000,000,000 offering alone. New York, as was expected, more than doubled the next highest. This estimate was made on the basis of reports an hour before the books closed in the east.

San Francisco started the day with a sensational advance from its previous report of $2,000,000. The first thing officials heard this morning was that instead of being approximately $25,000,000 under its minimum allotment, the district was nearing the minimum and probably would take its quota.

Only Two Districts Below Allotment
In the Dallas district the figure stood at $20,000,000 when the day started—$11,000,000 less than the minimum allotment. There were then more than 2000 banks to be heard from. It was thought their response would easily swell the total to the minimum of $40,000,000.

Apparent failure of the Kansas City and Atlanta districts to reach their minimum, based on early reports, reflected, officials believed, the failure of the cotton farmers of the south and the wheat growers of the west to respond as fully as it had been estimated they would. It was pointed out that in each district the farmers have not harvested their crops and therefore are not in as strong a position to answer the call as they will be after the harvest.

Demand for Baby Bonds
Districts in which are located the great industrial plants of the country reflected a tremendous demand for the so-called baby bonds. The $50 issue will be by far the most popular, it is believed. The total number of subscribers to all denominations, it was estimated, will exceed 1,500,000. This is ten times the number of persons in the entire nation who hold securities of any other sort.

The small investor, officials declared today, is to receive the full amount of his subscription. Every $50 and $100 bond subscribed for, it was said, is to be issued. This presages a widespread paring down of great individual subscriptions.

300,000 CAPTURED BY BRITISH DURING WAR

LONDON, June 15.—More than 300,000 prisoners have been taken by the British during the war, James Jan MacPherson, parliamentary secretary to the war office, announced in the House of Commons today. Up to the end of last May, 76,957 prisoners were taken on the western front to which must be added at least 5000 for the month of June in Mesopotamia. 10,000 prisoners have been taken since July 1, 1916. In Egypt the number of prisoners since July 1, 1916, is approximately 8739.

On the western front the British armies have captured 154 guns since July 1, 1916. In Mesopotamia 133 guns have been taken since the beginning of the war exclusive of those lost at Kut-el-Amara and subsequently recaptured. In Egypt 18 guns have been taken.

The territory regained by the British on the western front since July 1, 1916, amounts to 600 square miles.

GERMANS STILL FALLING BACK—BRITISH ADVANCE

The British campaign in Belgium gives signs of developing into one of the most important of the war. The Germans apparently are unable to resist the pressure being constantly applied to them and are being forced back at a comparatively rapid rate.

Another British Advance
Today brings the announcement of another considerable advance by the British in this area. They attacked last night in the region south and east of Messines and on both sides of the Ypres-Comines canal, gaining all their objectives and capturing one big gun and seven machine guns, together with 150 prisoners.

British Take Trenches
The front line in the British offensive movement extends for a distance of about seven miles from the village of Klein Zillebeke south to the river Warnave. Last night's attack, the culmination of constant pressure, yielded Gen. Plumer's troops the German front on the continent, sent a generous subscription. From the Panama canal zone subscriptions totaled $250,000.

New York's Total
NEW YORK, June 15.—New York has over-subscribed its quota to the Liberty Loan by many hundreds of millions of dollars. It has probably doubled the quota fixed by the treasury department and exceeded its own quota, established by the Liberty Loan committee here, by $200,000,000.

Although at the closing hour, noon, the totals were at least six hours behind in recording the subscriptions that had been pouring in since yesterday it was estimated the total participation of the New York federal reserve district would amount to at least $1,200,000,000.

New England's Total
BOSTON, June 16.—New England, true to its best traditions, made a patriotic response to the government's call and through the federal reserve bank of Boston, over-subscribed its allotment of Liberty Loan bonds.

Two hours before the books closed today subscriptions announced by the New England committee had reached a total of $247,500,000, or seven and one-half million dollars above the quota expected from this district.

Telegrams were pouring in from local committees in hundreds of cities and letters mailed yesterday and last night were piled high and unopened at headquarters. While local committee workers in Boston were making a wonderful rally to bring the grand total well up above the figure counted on by bank officials.

So great was the final rush that tabulators were swamped. Alfred L. Aiken, governor of the Federal Reserve bank and chairman of the New England committee announced that it was just a question of how much the allotment would be exceeded. Indications were, he said, that no final or official report could be prepared before tonight or possibly tomorrow.

Sec. McAdoo's Statement
WASHINGTON, June 15.—Secretary McAdoo announced the over-subscription of the two billion dollar offering of the Liberty Loan today, said he did not think there would be another offering of the remaining three billion authorized by congress before this fall.

Cong. Fuller Subscribes Million
MALDEN, June 16.—A $1,000,000 subscription for Liberty Loan bonds has been received by the local loan committee from Congressman Alvan T. Fuller. "You have received many subscriptions for $50 bonds to be paid for at $1 a week. These subscriptions are much more creditable than mine," said a telegram accompanying the subscription sent from Washington by the congressman.

FLAG DAY EXERCISES AT MEMORIAL HALL

Flag day exercises were held in Memorial hall last night under the auspices of Post 42, B. F. Butler Relief Corps. Congressman John J. Rogers was the guest of honor and he gave an interesting and instructive address on the history of the flag. He started with its origin, told what it represented and stood for and in conclusion spoke of the present war.

In speaking about the country's stand in entering the war, Congressman Rogers emphasized the fact that in all conflicts of this nature there is an occasion and a cause for it. In the present instance he allowed that while the loss of American lives and the expenditure of money to check the freedom of the seas was a good and sufficient cause for us taking the attitude we did, there was a more important and justifiable cause.

"President Wilson has well explained it in a few words when he said, 'We must make the world safe for democracy,' said he. 'We must protect our ultimate salvation. We must fight on the side of rightness, we must fight for human liberty, this is a holy war and it is for humanity's sake that we are now engaged in it. In closing the speaker said that we must fight so that we may breathe and grow. If we don't fight our enemies there now, they will be fighting us over here or on a poem in what the flag stands for was read by the speaker.

The opening number was the assembly of flags by the color bearers, all the patriotic organizations of the city. There were also pleasing quartet numbers by Miss Lillian G. Powers, Mr. Charles George Joseph, Wilmet and Arthur Galley. The accompanist was Ella Leona Gale.

Patriotic instructor Mrs. Lizzie Worthen had general supervision of the evening's program and she was assisted by President Mrs. Hattie Cummings.

The other numbers on the program were: Song, Miss Lauretta Micauli; remarks, Department President Mrs. Starkweather; remarks, Past Department President Mrs. Laura Smith; remarks, Rev. Alfred Hussey; remarks, Mrs. Abby, national senior sister; Mrs. Alice Stearns and Bernice Staples; remarks, Mrs. Dorcas Lyman, past department president; reading, Mrs. A. S. and female by the entire company, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Miss Cora Bartlett was the accompanist of the evening.

STATE GUARD INCREASED

Lowell has added two more units to the State Guard, for last night the Business Men's battalion and a company of Spanish war veterans were organized into the Massachusetts State Guard. The Business Men's battalion is made up of 66 representative business men of Lowell who want to do their "bit." Hereafter they will be known as Co. 39 of the State Guard.

The officers of the company are Walter B. Jeyes, captain; Edward Fisher, first lieutenant; C. Frank Dupree, second lieutenant, and A. S. Goldman, secretary.

Co. 39 will be composed of 68 men, Spanish War veterans, and are commanded by Capt. A. D. Mitchell. First Lieut. Frank Dodge and Second Lieut. J. E. Crowley.

After the physical examination last night the men were assembled on the drill floor of the Westford street armory and mustered in by Col. Edward H. Edridge, a retired officer of the Massachusetts Volunteer militia. The term of service in the State Guard is for two years, or less if the war does not last that long.

SECRETARY OF Y. M. C. A. TENDERS RESIGNATION

Much regret was expressed throughout the city today when it became known that Dr. D. E. Yarnell, for eight years general secretary of the Lowell Young Men's Christian Association, had tendered his resignation to the directors of the association, to take effect July 1.

Dr. Yarnell has done splendid work for the young men of Lowell and vicinity during his stay in this city. He is to take several months' vacation, after which he will enter Y.M.C.A. activities in New York.

His letter of resignation follows: Professor Louis A. Olney, President Lowell Young Men's Christian Association.

Dear Mr. Olney—Allow me to express to you and to the board of directors my resignation as general secretary of the Lowell Young Men's Christian Association, to take effect July 1, 1917.

It has been a great pleasure to have had a share during the past eight years with the directors and many team workers in securing a new building for the association; in closing with current expense bills paid each year; with increasing membership and activities.

I wish to express my sincere personal appreciation of the generous support given by members, trustees, directors and many friends of the association, as expressed in the large contributions of time, money and personal services for the advancement of the association work in this community and the foreign field.

With kind personal regards and best wishes for the future development of the work, I remain Very sincerely yours, D. E. Yarnell.

In accepting the resignation, the directors expressed their regret at his departure, and their appreciation of his services.

FAMILY OF THREE RESCUED FROM DROWNING

BOSTON, June 15.—While celebrating his 15th wedding anniversary canoeing on the Charles yesterday afternoon, J. G. Allen, 33 Symms street, Rosindale, bumped his head against the low arched Charles river bridge and upset the canoe containing his wife and 3-year-old daughter, Martha. Patrolman Albert J. Nott of Station 17 swam ashore with Mrs. Allen while Walter J. Burke of Natick and Henry Homer of Samoset Canoe club succeeded in rescuing the father and daughter.

Officer Nott upon hearing screams for help procured a canoe and paddled to the scene. He found Mrs. Allen being held up in the water between two canoes and the boatmen, having all they could do in holding on to the woman, were drifting down the river. Realizing that immediate action was necessary the officer removed coat and helmet and plunged overboard after Mrs. Allen, whom he succeeded in bringing to the raft on the Dedham side of the river.

In the meantime Walter J. Burke of Natick had succeeded in rescuing the little girl, and Henry Homer in his canoe had brought Mr. Allen, who was unconscious, to the shore. Two naval militia men applied first aid methods to Mr. Allen when he was brought ashore and after 20 minutes vigorous work over him he regained consciousness. The Allen family were then taken comfortably to their home last night apparently none the worse for the accident.

TO INCREASE PRICE OF MILK

BOSTON, June 15.—New England milk producers have begun a campaign for a substantial increase in the price of milk delivered to wholesalers here. Shortage of cattle feed was given as the principal reason. Retailers said today that if the demands of the farmers are to be met the price of milk to the consumer here will be increased from 11 to 12 cents a quart.

WESTVILLE, N. H. BOY TO BE EXECUTIVE OFFICE MANAGER FOR GEN. PERSHING

WESTVILLE, N. H., June 15.—Harold Gosselin, the 20 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Gosselin of this place, has been selected executive office manager for Maj. Gen. John J. Pershing at the headquarters of the American commander in France, according to word received by his parents. Young Gosselin, who has been connected with the department of interior at Washington, will leave shortly for his new post in France.

MACHINERY SAVES MONEY

Machinery means money, is the substance of a statement issued last night from the state food production committee, recommending the employment of improved farm machines as far as possible in farming operations.

Fifty years ago 55 hours of labor were required to produce an acre of potatoes, yielding 110 bushels. Now, thanks to the potato planter and digger, the same acre requires only 10 hours of labor and produces something like 320 bushels, because the modern machine can open up the row, distribute the fertilizer, and drop and cover the seed potatoes at a rate sometimes reaching five acres a day.

The principle is exactly the same as that recognized in other industries, says the statement. More effective and rapid methods lessen the labor cost and reduce the growing cost per bushel, by producing increased yields per

A regiment of woodsmen is being organized by the United States Forest Service, and Hating of applicants is now going on at the office of the Massachusetts Forestry Association, 4 Joy street, Boston, one block from the state house. The class of men desired are axmen, sawyers, portable mill-sawyers and engineers, motor truck drivers, foremen, seniors, teamsters, clerks, cooks, millwrights, hewers of railroad ties and foresters. In fact every type of labor used in a logging operation is needed. The duty of the regiment will be to get out timber for the armies, and it will work behind the battle lines, but may occasionally be within the danger zone. The regiment will be officered by trained foresters.

Applicants for this regiment must be white, between the ages of 18 and 40, and must pass the regular army physical examination. Men subject to conscription will discharge their obligations by enlisting in this regiment. Enlistment is for period of the war, and pay begins at date of enlistment. The regiment will be organized on

A Billerica Lady Now Endorses It

Claims Since Taking Plant Juice
She Can Eat Her Food
and is Feeling Fine

When the delicate machinery of the stomach is not working harmoniously, the stomach is not digesting the food properly; poisons are retained in the system which should be expelled. The new herbal stomach remedy, Plant Juice, assists nature, by causing the stomach to properly digest the food, when it promptly dissolves or neutralizes all of the poisonous acids which fermenting food has left in the stomach, and the digestive machinery, thus relieved of this hampered acid accumulation, goes naturally and normally about its work of digestion without help of any kind. Plant Juice counteracts acid formation and so-called dyspepsia and indigestion.

MRS. P. G. DOCKHAM

Among the hundreds of local testimonials received, praising Plant Juice, none is of greater interest than that of Mrs. P. G. Dockham, who resides on Pond street, in Billerica, Mass., and is a well known and popular lady of that town, having many acquaintances here. She said:

"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years and had indigestion so bad that I could not take any solid food into my stomach as I would have such terrible pains afterward. I could not sleep at night on account of the pain. I had headaches, and my liver was also affected, which made me very dizzy; always had a bad taste in my mouth. I tried many different medicines, but none of them seemed to do me the least good, and as I had heard so much about the good Plant Juice was doing in our city, I decided to try it. I am certainly glad that I did, for now I am able to eat anything I want. I sleep well, and have not had a pain since I have been using Plant Juice. It has made a new woman of me and I am glad to recommend it to others."

The Plant Juice Man is at Dows, the Druggists, in Merrimack Square, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

On Saturday he will remain at the store until 10 p. m. to meet those who are unable to call during the day.

Cocoon Oil Makes a Splendid Shampoo

It cleanses, nourishes the hair and roots, keeps the scalp soft and pliable, its creamy foam, which is so pleasant to shampooing, a real delight. Removes all particles of dandruff, dirt, dust, excess oil—rinses out easily and quickly. Your hair will dry quickly and evenly after its use—will appear very much thicker and heavier than it is—fine, silky, fresh and healthy looking—glows with particular ease to dress. Does not dry out the natural oils of the hair.

Disinfects the scalp. Women are using HAYS COCONUT OIL SHAMPOO more and more because it is so different, so much better for their hair than ordinary shampoos full of harsh drying alkali that do more harm than good to the hair. It is fine for children's hair, too.

Get it at your druggist's. He will refund your money if not satisfactory. Just try it today and be convinced. Always ask for and get the genuine.

military lines, and its members will be uniformed, armed and drilled under military discipline.

Those wishing to join this regiment should see the recruiting officer, 4 Joy street, Boston, before June 21, as the recruiting will begin the latter part of June and the regiment will be sent into training. It will be one of the first units to carry the flag to France.

This is an opportunity for woodmen to serve the country in the capacity for which they are best fitted and in which they are most efficient.

THE APPLETON MILLS

The following item from the "American Wool and Cotton Reporter," in relation to the Appleton Co. of this city, and dated June 14, will prove of interest to the residents of this city.

Tomorrow, June 15, the Appleton company, of which Alexander G. Cunnock is treasurer, will distribute to the holders of 6,000 shares of capital stock, dividends amounting to $18,000, in addition to the regular semi-annual of 5 per cent, which the Appleton has paid for a number of years, there will be an extra of 2 per cent. Although the capital of the Appleton company was increased about a year and a half ago from $150,000 to $500,000, its plant is known to be worth several times the latter figure.

A glance at the financial statement for 1916 shows that the net quick assets of the company, exceeded the capital stock by more than $100,000. Its equipment consists of 3,000 looms and nearly 50,000 spindles for the manufacture of shirtings, flannels, ginghams, and dress goods. We understand that a number of improvements have been made by the company during the last twelve months and that when the plans of the management are carried out in full the capacity of the plant will be increased by something like 25 per cent. Efficient mill management and selling methods have contributed toward the success of this company for nearly a century. In 1916 record showed an improvement of around 40 per cent over that of the previous year. There is no doubt that the first six months of the current fiscal year, have been very prosperous ones for the Appleton.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The following notices are from the press agents of the theatres mentioned:

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"The Promise," a Metro picture of stirring interest, with Harold Lloyd, wood and May Allison in the principal parts, was shown at the B. F. Keith theatre yesterday afternoon and last evening, and it will be continued for the remainder of the week. It is a story of the rugged plains of the west, and it is filled with action and love scenes of the type which the public loves. The picture, with pretty Peggy Hyland featured. The story is of an artist-oriental who is one of the most attractive of the type, who falls in love with a girl named "Babe" and does his best to blot out the past. He succeeds, aided by his little friend, although not until he has been sorely tried. Sidney Drow in "Putting It Over Henry," does some of his inimitable comedy work, which will be very much liked. "Henry" was bright, but he couldn't quite keep up to his wife, when it came to framing little games. The Pathe News pictures are as attractive as ever.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The big feature bill at the Merrimack Square theatre for the last three days of this week will again be presented to-day and tomorrow at the "continuous" performances. On the program are Vivian Martin, who has an admirable role in the five-act feature, "Giving Rocky a Chance," which gives Miss Martin excellent opportunities to display herself more strongly to her many ardent admirers; Robert Warwick and Gail Kane, who star in their five-act success, "The False Friend," which tells the interesting story of the eventual happiness which comes to one who too greatly trusted his friend. Chaplin in "The Cure" will put everyone in a good humor today and tomorrow at this theatre and the travel pictures will be found most enjoyable.

THE PLAYHOUSE

At the Playhouse for one solid week beginning on Monday, June 18th, the latest and best of the Ivan productions, "Enlighten Thy Daughter," will hold the attention of everyone who can appreciate a powerful subject, adequately handled, and set forth in a most convincing manner by a carefully selected cast. Ivan Abramson, the author and director, chose for the subject of this seven-reel feature a theme which will appeal to every parent and has embodied in the idea in the mandatory title. The play is well worthy of careful consideration, and the lesson it conveys will be understood by all who see it. "Enlighten Thy Daughter" will be shown three times daily at 10, 15 and 25c. prices, no seats reserved.

OWL THEATRE

William Fox will present George Walsh in the leading role of the latest Fox feature, "High Finance," at the Owl theatre today and tomorrow. The story as told so well by Mr. Walsh and surrounding cast is most amusing as well as interesting. A young man brought up in luxury with no apparent ability except to have a good time excites the disgust of his father. But love changes this indolent, dissipated, inclined young man into a real captain of industry. He salts an abandoned copper mine and sells it to his father at a fancy figure. When the father discovers that his son is smarter than he is everything is smoothed out and love comes into its own. The acting, the theme and the photography of this play place it among the foremost productions of the year. Another big feature on this program is "The Cloud," in which Jean Sothorn, Walter Miller, Ogden Crane and other celebrated stars appear. The play tells of a girl's love for her mother. Charlie Chaplin will make all the patrons of this theatre double up with laughter with his antics in his latest play "The Cure," which will also be shown today and tomorrow.

CROWN THEATRE

Virginia Pearson and Charles Kent, with an all star cast, will appear at the Crown theatre today and tomorrow in the five-part Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature, "The Vital Question," a complicated problem of honor and loyalty, suffering and sacrifice, through loyalty to principle, which eventually triumphs over travail, temptation and trouble. The latest "American Girl" series, featuring Mary Seals, will also be shown today and tomorrow, and will be found to be gripping in every scene and most enjoyable. Other plays will also be shown on this big program.

ROYAL THEATRE

It is literary history that no short stories have so seized upon the American public as those written by O. Henry. The master of the sparkling, suffering and sacrifice, through loyalty to principle, which eventually triumphs over travail, temptation and trouble. The latest "American Girl" series, featuring Mary Seals, will also be shown today and tomorrow, and will be found to be gripping in every scene and most enjoyable. Other plays will also be shown on this big program.

For twenty years I have been the recognized Blue Serge Tailor of New England. Today is the same, you'll find a greater choice and prices lower—quality considered—than anywhere in New England.

A YEAR AGO I told you in one of my advertisements exactly what the condition of the woolen market would be today. But foreseeing was never more truly forearming. I had already placed tremendous contracts direct with the leading mills and commission houses specializing in the manufacture of guaranteed blue fabrics. Consequently I can offer you today the same high quality Blue Serge, absolutely guaranteed as to color, strength and dependability, at the same prices as in former years. No advance.

Today and Tomorrow

I will have on display in my store, Merrimack Square, Lowell, more Blue Serges than all the tailors in Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill combined. This is not said for a boast, I can prove it. Rolls of them, thousands of yards in different weights so a man can make a selection that he likes.

People want service nowadays—that's why I carry so many kinds and styles. You tell me you see so many styles you like that you don't know which really to pick out. You please me when you say that, because I know that is what you expect of me—Service and low prices.

FUNERALS

MARTIN—The funeral of Patrick Martin took place this morning at 8.30 o'clock from the funeral chambers of Higgins Bros. and was held at St. Peter's church where, at 9 o'clock, a mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Francis Shea. The bearers were Messrs. William Fitzgerald, Michael O'Shea, James Fitzgerald and Henry Hannon. The burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, the committal prayers being said at the grave by Rev. Francis Shea, assisted by Rev. Patrick L. Crayton. The funeral was largely attended and under the direction of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

FLANDERS—The funeral of Harry A. Flanders took place from his home at 140 Grove Street, Thursday afternoon. Prayers were said at the home and services held at the Talbot Memorial chapel in the Lowell cemetery at 8 o'clock, which were conducted by Rev. Calob E. Fisher, D.D., pastor of the First Universalist church. Miss Marion McKnight and Miss Marion McKnight were the flower girls. The bearers were Messrs. L. R. J. Varney, Samuel McCord, John Farnard and Messrs. Stanley. The funeral services were very beautiful. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery where the burial service was held by Rev. Dr. Fisher. The funeral was under the direction of Undertakers Young & Blake.

KIRCHEN—The funeral services of Charles H. Kitchen took place at his home, 14 Bryant street, yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Arthur H. Kitchen, pastor of St. Anne's Episcopal church. "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" were sung by the sons and daughters. The bearers were the three grandsons and three nephews of the deceased, Ralph N. Wheeler, Ernest Kitchen, Chester Kitchen, Mrs. A. H. Kitchen and George Kitchen. The Old Fellows and Grand Army and Relief Corps also took part in the services and, at the grave. Among the flowers sent were the following: Pillow inscribed "Father" from the sons and daughters; "Grandfather" from the grandchildren; basket inscribed "Great-Grandpa" from the grandchildren; pillow inscribed "1853-1917" from the employees of the Lowell Gas Light Co. with an account of the deceased's connection with the company and sprays, Mrs. S. R. Kitchen and Russell Kitchen, Mrs. Mary E. Kitchen and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kitchen, Miss Emma Kitchen, Mrs. A. H. Jackson and daughter, Miss Kate Hibbert, Mrs. Mary E. Atwood and family, Mrs. Adelaide Gardner of Gloucester, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grimes of Rockport, Miss Nan Kitchen of Boston, Old Company G Associates, Albert I. Flanders, Mrs. George F. Swapp and Isabella S. Swapp, C. O. Milliken of Melrose Highlands, and basket, Mr. and Mrs. George Frost and family of Haverhill. Burial was in the Lowell cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Mr. Granger. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker John A. Weinbeck.

GERMANY PLANNED TO ANNEX BALTIC PROVINCES OF RUSSIA—FRENCH FRONT, June. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—What Frenchmen regard as proof that the German government has planned to annex the Baltic provinces of Russia was found in a German official pamphlet marked "strictly confidential" and found in a house at Novon after the German evacuation of that place. Both German government officials and German newspapers recently have denied there was any such plan, but the discovery of the pamphlet is held here as evidence to the contrary.

The conclusions summed up in the pamphlet are:

the council had already voted on that.

Q—Mr. Morse said he would like to know just what his requisitions were. He asked Mr. Foye if it was not customary for the street department to purchase some goods without requisitions. He replied yes, but not at wholesale as was the case with the water department. Mr. Morse was given his requisitions which he examined.

A—Prior to the first of January when you were put out of office to what extent were goods purchased without requisitions?

A—It was done occasionally, when small goods were needed in haste.

Q—How long have you been purchasing agents?

A—Six years.

Q—How did you first obtain the office?

A—I was elected by the people.

Q—Do you live in Lowell?

A—Yes, sir.

Q—How long have you lived here?

A—Only five years.

Q—Were you in office in 1913 when Mr. Brown was transferred to the finance department?

A—Yes, you have a talk with him?

A—Yes, sir.

Q—What was said?

A—Brown objected and Mr. Quay read the last paragraph of Mr. Foye's answer.

Mr. Quay referred to statements made by Mr. Foye relative to talks he had had with Mr. Brown and statements alleged to have been made by the latter, and wanted to have Mr. Foye testify along that line.

Mr. Brown—"You may go on Mr.

Qua, I have no objection, but if anything of what is said is printed in newspapers I will bring suit." Mr. Morse desired to prove that all bills approved by Mr. Foye were also approved by Mr. Brown and Mr. Morse and again Mr. Foye objected on the grounds that the regulations are evidence enough. The mayor suggested that Mr. Qua ask Mr. Morse if Mr. Morse ever disapproved any bills. The question was asked and the reply was in the affirmative. Mr. Qua said he wished to prove that in 1916 Mr. Morse voted to increase the salary of Mr. Foye, and the third time Mr. Regan objected.

Had to Vote for Foye

Mr. Morse said he had to vote for Mr. Foye for there were four votes to one. "I asked that Redmond Welch's pay be raised, but I didn't think too much of it, but for Mr. Foye," said Mr. Morse—leave you any other bills from other departments?" Mr. Foye—No sir.

Mr. Morse—Did you ever find me to be dishonest?"

Mr. Foye—No sir.

The question of whether Mr. Morse would raise the salary of the purchasing agent was put and the answer was in the affirmative.

Mr. Qua desired to show that Mr. Brown was the guest of Mr. Foye at Christmas. Mr. Brown said he had no objections because the public had a right of his honesty and that of Mr. Foye.

Mr. Qua said he wanted to prove that on the same occasion Mr. Brown took a party to the Foyer in his lap and said: "You need not fear fol-

Q.—Your brother sold eggs, tea, coffee, butter, etc., to the city?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Wouldn't such a business require a large stock?
A.—I don't know. I remember when you were in the same business, Mr. Reagan, and you were doing business in Hennessy's barn.
Q.—Do you know why the Merrimack Tea Co. was never assessed?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did the company own a horse and team?
A.—It owned an auto truck.
Q.—Did it have any employees?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did the company go to the various wholesale houses in Lowell and order goods delivered to the city.
A.—I don't know.
Q.—Do you know that 75 per cent of the bills were written on blanks from the purchasing agent's office?
A.—Some of them.
Q.—Did he go to John Street Public market was produced and identified by Mr. Foye.
Q.—Would it surprise you to know that on the date which appears on the bills was written against the city on the books of the John Street Public market?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Who is Leo McEvoy?
A.—A young man from Centralville.
Q.—Did Duffy Bros. carry a stock of bibles?
A.—They carried a stock of stationery.
Q.—Did Mr. McEvoy carry a stock of tobacco, toilet paper, etc.?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—How would you get prices from him?
A.—He would come in for prices.
Q.—Where was he working?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—He was a clerk in a store?
A.—I couldn't say.
Q.—Did you ever get favors from people you purchased from?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Did you ever purchase from Mr.

Donovan?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did he ever do you a favor?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—When the goods came in, you stamped your approval on it, his to show that the prices were right?

A.—Yes sir.

Q.—Have you ever received a communication from the school department to the effect that the prices for goods were too high?

A.—No sir.

Q.—Do you know Mr. Boyle?

A.—Yes sir.

Q.—Did you ever tell him that you had it framed that when you would be called to the witness stand you would make a statement that would require the attention of the grand jury?

A.—No sir.

Q.—Mr. Boyle's examination was concluded at this point, and Mr. Quinn asked Mr. Brown to take the stand, but Mr. Regan objected, and Mr. Warnock said the objection was sustained.

Mr. Qua said Mr. Brown had been summoned. Mr. Brown refused to testify. Mr. Qua said he wanted to produce a newspaperman, informed a Boston newspaperman that Mr. Foye had been removed because he had shown favoritism in purchasing goods.

Mr. Regan then informed a libel suit against the paper in question, you don't want to try a libel case here do you?

Mr. Qua.—I don't know what you want to try. I will ask Mr. Warnock to take the stand.

Mr. Warnock.—Mr. Warnock is presiding over this hearing and will not testify.

Mr. Regan.—It is unfair to ask the members of the council to testify, for they have given you all the opportunity to examine the records of their departments.

Mr. Brown read a prepared statement to the effect that it was ridiculous to call upon the judges to testify.

Mr. Ques said his purpose of having the commissioners testify was to show that the removal of Mr. Foye was in fact a removal by the mayor. The mayor turned and resumed his chair.

Mr. Warnock—The statement of Mr. Foye, that I was one of the men who would receive him in order to be able to conduct his department for my benefit was prepared by his counsel. I have given you ample opportunity to cross-examine him in my department. I deny the charges and until you can prove any of the allegations I refuse to answer questions. I have no doubt that Mr. Foye is a good faith. He never asked me to vote for him.

Mr. Ques said Mr. Warnock was under a false apprehension. It is not our belief that there has been a custom in Mr. Warnock's office to purchase goods illegally. A petition for the case closed this point.

Edward J. Boyle

Edward J. Boyle was called and questioned by Mr. Regan. He said he had a number of conversations with Mr. Foye since the latter's removal from office. He said Mr. Foye asked him if in the event of being reinstated by the supreme court the charges would be brought against him. He told me he would not act alone, that if he were sacrificed others would be sacrificed. With reference to the various conversations he has had with Mr. Foye I brand matters of threatening and grand jury were brought in. He said he had no conversation with Mr. Brown and the latter told him that charges would be preferred.

Mr. Ques—You are employed at either the water department?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You had your pay raised recently?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—By whom?

A.—Mr. Brown.

Q.—How much?

A.—$200 a month.

Q.—Did Mr. Brown say anything to you about the effect on the French vote if he put out Mr. Lapine?

A.—No sir.

Q.—Didn't he say that it was impossible to move on his part?

A.—No sir.

Q.—Did you say to Mr. Foye that Mr. Brown had told you that he could not make a speech to French voters?

Q.—What did you say to Mr. Foye?

A.—That my impression was that Mr. Brown feared the French vote.

Q.—After having had a talk with Mr. Brown, did you tell Mr. Foye your impression was that Mr. Brown feared the French vote?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you say to Mr. Foye that Mr. Brown would give him another position at city hall?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—What did you tell him?

Q.—That I would do my best to secure another position for him at city hall in the event of other removals.

Mr. Brown.—Up to the time that Mr. Foye was here would make a statement against me, was he always friendly to me in his talk to you?

A.—Not always; but he always gave me the impression that you were one of the men that men at city hall.

Q.—Did he ever say that I went out of office without a cent?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did he ever tell you that I tried to interfere with his duties?

A.—No sir.

Frank J. Day

The next witness called was Frank J. Day, another employee of the water department. He said Mr. Foye never said anything about his removal, and he felt badly over the loss of the job and that he had been half decent in the performance of his duties.

Mr. Brown.—Mr. Foye never charged me with dishonesty?

A.—I never heard him say that.

The case was closed at 10.05 o'clock at which time the arguments were begun. Mr. Regan was first to argue

GEN. PERSHING AT TOMB OF NAPOLEON

PARIS, June 15.—It was an impressive scene, as General Pershing stood yesterday morning with uncovered head at the tomb of Napoleon and paid silent tribute to one of the world's greatest commanders.

General Pershing, accompanied by his staff, was received at the Hotel des Invalides by General Nox, the military commander of the historic monument, and General Malterre.

As the American party entered the spacious grounds leading to the building they encountered a number of veterans of the French war, who have their home at this institution. One of those was a grizzled soldier of the Crimean war, who still wore the ancient uniform and carried on his breast decorations of the old days. As the veteran saluted General Pershing, the general stopped and extended his hand, saying: "It is a great honor for a young soldier like myself to press the hand of an old soldier like yourself, who has seen such glorious service."

Passing into the Invalides, General Nox conducted the American commander within the vast rotunda, where his walls hung with battle flags and thence the party proceeded below to the crypt where the sarcophagus of Napoleon reposes.

Entered to the crypt is rigorously limited and it is seldom that anyone is admitted except crowned heads or a former ruler, as in the case of President Roosevelt when he visited Paris.

General Pershing stood for some moments gazing at the impressive spectacle. He was then conducted to the artillery museum, where precious relics of Napoleon are preserved. General Pershing was particularly interested in Napoleon's sword, which the great commander brought from the battle of Jena.

He examined the sword closely and marked the difference from the modern weapon. He then took up Napoleon's Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor and examined that also with care. An hour was spent by the Americans in the building.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

The annual strawberry festival given under the direction of the ladies of the church was held in the vestry of the First Baptist Congregational church last evening.

The evening's varied program, all in keeping with the occasion, flag day, was highly appreciated by the large audience.

the tested skin-treatment

If you want to experiment on your skin, there are plenty of treatments to experiment with. But if you want something whose value has been proven by years and years of successful use, if you want a treatment that doctors prescribe constantly, that you know contains nothing harsh or injurious, you will find it in Resinol Ointment, aided by Resinol Soap. It usually stops itching instantly, and rarely fails to clear away all trace of eczema or similar tormenting skin-eruption.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 27-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Auto-Intoxication Explained!

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

There is no question but that many people suffer from auto-intoxication and ptomaine poisoning. These are big words which are easily explained. Thru the failure of the liver to properly perform its work the twenty-seven feet of intestines become clogged. This stagnation throws poisons into the blood and the circulation, and one suffers from bad breath, foul taste in the mouth, and even yellow-coated tongue, headache, nausea or fullness. Gas often presses the diaphragm against the heart and causes pain there, or acid dyspepsia follows; often the inactive liver causes yellow skin and eyes, and one feels languid, tired and debilitated. At such times some people are advised by their doctors to take a mineral oil, often called "Russian Oil," but experiments by R. F. McDonald have shown, as lately reported in a government publication of the U. S. Public Health Service, that mineral oil may act as an irritant that produces gastro-intestinal disturbances and that it may cause disease proliferation, stimulating cancer.

A better method, which I always advise, is to take as much outdoor exercise as possible, drink half a pint of hot water morning and night and plenty of water between meals and take a pleasant laxative pill occasionally. Such a one is made up of the May-apple, of vegetable calomel, and other concentrated herb extracts that give tone to the bowels. This was first sold and sold by Nicholas Pileggi, nearly 50 years ago as Doctor Pileggi's Pleasant Pellets. Such simple means will remove that bugbear, auto-intoxication, constipation and the ill-effects follow, by favoring healthy action.

Marriage of Prince Fluttermby, a two-act operetta, given by the church young folks, was a feature number and received worthy recognition from the appreciative audience.

Shortly after 7 o'clock luscious strawberries were served, under the general direction of Mrs. James Trevors. The entertainment program followed, including the "Marriage of Prince Fluttermby," which was given under the direction of Mrs. S. W. Shaw and Miss Cora Cummings. It was well done, all members of the large cast doing their bit in commendable manner. Those taking part were: Prince Fluttermby, Marion Barnett; "King Clorin," W. Bartlett; "Queen Clotilde," Amy French; "Princess Rosalba," Mildred Cameron; "Nurse Boodle," Grace Mansfield; "Herbert," J. Coleman; "Colonel," Edward Archibald Grant; train bearers, Ruth Ball and Mabel Bennett; maids of honor, Lorna Shaw, Mildred Buttwislie, Alice Courtney, Ruth Carter, Charlene Bartlett, Dorothy Ellis, Ethel Armstrong and Ruth Cook; house maids, Grace Cushman, Sarah Mason, Doris Highy, Lois Bryan, Ethel Vance and Gertrude Caldwell.

A topical song by Miss Marion Barnett also provided a pleasing number. The singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and flag drill by a group of young folks brought the event to a fitting close.

VOTE TO BUY BONDS

The regular meeting of Lowell Council, Knights of Columbus, was held last night and considerable routine business was transacted. It was the unanimous vote of the body that the board of investment of the organization purchase at least $5000 worth of Liberty bonds.

WESTFORD MAN SHOT

Michael Fay of Westford was shot by a Sixth regiment guard on the Shawmut avenue bridge of the Boston & Albany railroad in Boston Wednesday night when he failed to halt when ordered. The military authorities report that Fay was loitering about the bridge, taunting the guards and that, when he was ordered to move on, he started to enter the track. He was called upon to halt and when he refused to obey the command the guard fired. Fay was taken to the city hospital where it was found that the wound is not serious.

TWO PERSONS PROSTRATED IN HAVENHILL ON FIRST HOT DAY OF THE YEAR

BOSTON, June 15.—Boston yesterday experienced the hottest day of the year so far. The mercury touched 83 degrees in mid-afternoon and sent thousands of city dwellers scurrying to nearby beaches and river resorts.

The first heat prostrations of the year were reported during the day from Havenhill, where two persons were overcome by the hot sun and required medical treatment.

Cloudy weather came toward night, but for today is predicted generally fair weather. Saturday will be fair, with moderate west to northwest winds. Yesterday's minimum temperature was 58 degrees, but high humidity made the day seem warmer than it actually was.

FOOT CRUSHED

Frank Gounish, employed at the Lowell Blechnery, had his left foot crushed while at work last night. The ambulance was summoned and he was taken to St. John's hospital.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

A meeting of the Lowell Council of Religious Education was held last evening at the First Unitarian Congregational church and the report of the committee on permanent organization was accepted and the constitution recommended adopted with a few amendments. A nominating committee consisting of Rev. W. S. Jacobs, Miss Fannie Murphy and Mrs. Charles Davis was appointed to report at an adjourned meeting Monday evening.

MAY CLOSED HARVARD UNION

CAMBRIDGE, June 15.—The Harvard Union, social centre of the undergraduates at the university, has been losing membership and running behind in its finances to such an extent that it is considered advisable to close it next year, the administrative board reported yesterday. The fact that most of the upper class men probably will be absent because of military service is a consideration in the board's decision. It was recommended that membership in the union be made compulsory on all students and that the university itself take over all responsibility.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION NOT TO INTERFERE IN WAR TIME TRAIN REDUCTIONS

BOSTON, June 15.—The Massachusetts public service commission will not interfere for the present in the proposed war-time reductions in passenger train service on railroads, it was stated in an official memorandum made public last night. "In reaching this conclusion," the commission reported, "we have been influenced by the fact that the companies have apparently endeavored to exercise a reasonable discrimination in the selection of trains which might best be eliminated. Since the changes were first advertised, the Boston & Maine railroad has agreed to restore many trains which it had proposed to discontinue, and similar modifications are still being made by this and by the other companies."

EIGHT FRENCH VESSELS SUNK BY MINE OR SUBMARINE DURING WEEK ENDING JUNE 14

PARIS, June 14.—Four French ships of more than 1000 tons, one under that size and three fishing boats were sunk by mine or submarine during the week ending June 14. Six ships were unsuccessfully attacked during the same period while 1024 vessels of all nations entered French ports and 1015 left.

EXPLAINS AIMS OF AMERICAN MISSION WHICH ARRIVED IN PETROGRAD YESTERDAY

PETROGRAD, via London, June 15.—David R. Francis, the American ambassador, issued to the press yesterday a long statement explaining the aims of the American mission headed by Ethel Root, which arrived in Petrograd yesterday. "Among the members of the mission," says the communiqué, "is not one person who pursues any personal, financial or commercial aims, or who desires to influence Russian internal affairs."

FRANCE HAVING DIFFICULTY IN PRONOUNCING GENERAL PERSHING'S NAME

PARIS, June 15.—In their columns of description of the arrival of Gen. Pershing and his staff the Paris newspapers found room yesterday to enlighten the public on the proper pronunciation of the general's name, a name which, as the Figaro says, is "not one easily enunciated in the accent of Montmartre."

There was much diversity in the pronunciation among the populace, the favorite rendering being "Pareshang."

"But," adds the Figaro, "it will be common knowledge today that the name of the American general who comes to fight beside our soldiers is pronounced 'Pershingne.'"

PLANS FOR GREAT RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Detailed preparations for the great Red Cross campaign which is to be held in Lowell all next week are practically completed. Although the personnel of the ten teams which are to solicit funds has not yet been announced, a tentative organization has been formed and it is felt that there will be few departures from this line-up when the campaign finally gets under way. The first gun of the campaign will be fired Monday evening when there will be a general meeting of all connected with the campaign at Memorial hall at 8 o'clock. Dinner will be served, and the assignment of work and final instructions will be given out. Postal cards have been sent to all those who are expected to attend, and it is requested that these be answered as soon as possible.

John H. Murphy, office manager of the campaign, is in need of three competent stenographers who are willing to volunteer their services for Saturday. Applications should be made to Mr. Murphy at 18 Shattuck street as soon as possible.

Following is the manner in which the campaign will be conducted according to present plans:

Monday night 8 o'clock: Dinner and meeting at Memorial hall. Assignment of duties, distribution of campaign material and verbal instructions. Music and a bit of entertainment. One speech from a qualified official. Report of initial contributions.

Tuesday: All day and evening devoted to team work and campaigning.

Wednesday noon: Luncheon at 12. Reports of teams and first tabulation of results. Campaign work all the rest of the time.

Thursday: All day and evening devoted to team work and campaigning.

Friday noon: Luncheon at 12. Reports of teams and second tabulation of results. Campaign work all the rest of the time.

Saturday: Special effort of team workers to clean up the tasks assigned.

Sunday: A final word from the church pulpits.

Monday night: Final dinner at 8 o'clock. Everyone to be present and finish the campaign with every assigned task done and every dollar reported.

The committee will report to Washington after each tabulation on the results attained.

Children Doing Their Share

With national and state authorities officially recognizing Red Cross week and the great war fund, and with the mayors and selectmen of every city and town actively participating in the big campaign, it is easy to foresee that the campaign next week will receive more attention than any similar movement in the history of the country. In addition to official approval, the most prominent men and women of every section are enlisted among the active workers, so that it is believed that the plan to raise $7,000,000 in New England, will speedily be a reality.

The children are already doing a large share in raising funds for the benefit of the boys who go to the front. The pupils of several Sunday schools have voted to forego their annual picnics and to turn over the money usually expended in that manner to the Red Cross war fund. It is believed that many more Sunday schools will take the same action and that the children of New England will thereby set a fine example for their elders.

One of Mr. Roosevelt's digressions from his written address was to flay the German language newspapers of the country. "These newspapers printed in German are a fit subject for the attention of the censor," he said. "I think the English language, seeing it is our language, does pretty well without the assistance of the German or any other language.

"I might have been sheriff of my county," Mr. Roosevelt continued, "but I never would have been if I had learned and only spoke Dutch, the language of my ancestors.

"I have a friend who has just enlisted in the army. He has a splendid little family of a wife and four children. He himself was born in Sweden, but he is all American, and a good one, too. Now, I don't want that man's children to speak Swedish and my children speak Dutch, because I want them to understand each other.

In the course of his address Colonel Roosevelt asserted that "the clergyman who does not put the flag above the church has better close his church and keep it closed."

Mr. Roosevelt urged farmers to buy Liberty Loan bonds, and said: "If you don't invest in the Liberty Loan, don't jump on Wall street when Wall street does."

FIRST PROSECUTION IN NEW ENGLAND FOR FAILURE TO REGISTER JUNE 5

BOSTON, June 15.—The first prosecution in New England of a man charged with refusal to register for the selective draft resulted yesterday in the holding for the federal grand jury of Frank Metichian of Norwood. Arrested first because of alleged efforts to induce fellow workmen not to register, it was charged specifically that Metichian himself refused to register when tendered the official card at the East Cambridge jail. The defendant testified that he had filled out the card, but would not sign it because he was a socialist and was opposed to war. He was returned to jail when he was unable to furnish $2000 bonds.

Store Order Checks

Increase the Purchasing Power of the Dollar For Credit Buyers

Our customers buy everything at the big cash stores, at the very lowest cash prices, and get more for their money than do credit buyers who do not avail themselves of our Store Order Check System of buying.

Department stores, men's, women's and children's clothing, shoes and other stores, have now opened their doors to all our customers who desire to purchase, on credit, on the $1.00 a week or partial payment plan.

Thousands of people who would not think of buying on credit are attracted by the money-saving opportunity presented by our modern credit service at the bargain sales of the big cash stores that are now going on.

For instance: In reading the advertisements of mark down sales of the big stores, a woman sees a big bargain for herself or any member of the family, that may be needed.

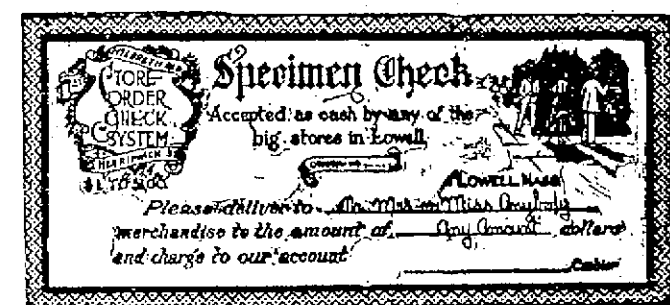

Having no ready money when these bargains are presented does not necessarily mean that she must go without the bargain or pay a greater price for it later. All she has to do to get her bargain and save her money is to use our Store Order Check and pay as she likes.

DISTILLING OF WHISKEY IS DOOMED—PROHIBITORY TAX UPON BEVERAGE FOODS

WASHINGTON, June 15.—A prohibitory tax on foodstuffs used in making beverages, tentatively agreed to last week by the senate finance committee, was said further increased yesterday, and then was formally written into the war tax bill. The new rate is 50 per hundred pounds instead of 30 per bushel, and representatives of the distillers declare it unquestionably would be effective in forcing suspension of the distilling industry. The section as approved also prohibits importation of distilled beverages.

Other liquor taxes were approved by the committee yesterday virtually without change from the house schedules. The manufacturers' tax of 5 per cent. on athletic goods, cameras, patent medicines, perfumery and cosmetics was reduced to 2 per cent., and a sub-tax on scalpers' sales of tickets was adopted, making the rate from 5 to 50 per cent. instead of 50 per cent. flat.

Tomorrow the troublesome income, excess profits and publishers' taxes will be taken up. The committee now hopes to present the re-drafted bill in the senate early next week.

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING STORM FORCES RECESS OF BOTH HOUSES

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Thunder, lightning, rain and hail which enveloped the capital for more than an hour yesterday, forced both houses of congress to recess while the storm raged because the legislators could not make themselves heard above the din.

BALTIMORE FEDS
DROP SUIT

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—Convinced, according to counsel for the plaintiffs, that organized baseball had entered into a conspiracy to wreck its business, the Baltimore Federal League club today dropped its $200,000 anti-trust damage suit against the American and National leagues, the national commission and other defendants. It was announced there was no settlement out of court.

When the United States district court opened for the fifth day of the trial, Stuart S. Janney, chief counsel for the Baltimore club, addressing Judge Dickenson said:

"After a full consideration of this case last night by counsel for the plaintiff, circumstances have arisen which make us desire to discontinue it. I desire to ask leave of the court, therefore, formally to file a motion of discontinuance. I would say that there has been no settlement of the case."

In reply to a question of the court, whether there was any objection on the part of the defense to a discontinuance, George Wharton Pepper, chief counsel for organized baseball, said:

"We feel very great gratification at the decision of counsel for the plaintiff. We should like to say to you that it is exactly as Mr. Janney has stated in no sense the result of a settlement, agreement or a suggestion of settlement, that the action is taken after a consideration of the whole record and of the entire situation, and for reasons which the plaintiff regards as sufficient." The court then granted the discontinuance.

TENDERED MUD SHOWER

A nurse of one of the local hospitals, whose name could not be learned, was splattered with mud by a passing auto truck early this afternoon in East Merimack street, just beyond the railroad crossing. At this point there are a few holes filled with muddy water. It might be well for the street department to have these gullholes filled with something more solid. The young lady was dressed in white and she presented a speckled appearance after the mishap. She was graciously conveyed to her home by Contractor Daniel H. Walker who happened to be passing in his auto.

LARGE QUANTITIES OF CONDENSED MILK BOUGHT RECENTLY BY GERMAN AGENTS

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Large quantities of condensed or evaporated milk have been bought recently by German agents and shipped to Germany through neutral ports, the department of commerce was informed today by the war committee of the condensed milk industry. Fearing detection if they purchased from manufacturers or jobbers, the German agents have canvassed retail stores to buy retail prices. Shipments were made to Norwegian and Danish ports, where ordinarily little American milk is bought. The milk manufacturers' war committee will seek to aid the government in preventing future shipments.

CONVENTION TO REMAIN IN SESSION—SECTARIAN AMENDMENT FILED

BOSTON, June 15.—The constitutional convention definitely went on record yesterday against an adjournment because of the war.

The passage of the order offered by Speaker Walker amending the report of the committee on rules, so as to provide that after July 15 "no motion to adjourn for more than seven days shall be entertained," finally disposed of the movement to postpone the convention.

Just before the convention adjourned, Martin M. Laganney filed his so-called "sectarian amendment," which is expected to precipitate one of the biggest fights of the convention.

SINKING OF FIVE NORWEGIAN SHIPS WITH HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE ANNOUNCED

LONDON, June 15.—The sinking of five more Norwegian vessels with considerable loss of life is reported by the Norwegian foreign office, as quoted in a Central News despatch from Copenhagen. The following craft have been sunk by German submarines: Sigurn, steamer, 2333 tons gross; crew rescued.

Camet, sailing vessel, loaded with pit props, driven ashore and seriously damaged by gun fire; all the crew rescued, with the exception of one man whose body was found.

Vinaes, steamer, 1107 tons, only four men saved.

Sylvia, sailing vessel, 140 tons, crew rescued.

Condace, sailing vessel 305 tons, crew rescued.

RT. REV. BISHOP BRADLEY'S
SILVER JUBILEE TO BE OBSERVED SUNDAY

Invitations have been received in this city, by friends of Right Rev. Bernard J. Bradley, LL.D., president of Mt. St. Mary's college, Emmitsburg, Md., to attend the silver jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood, which will take place at the college on June 17th. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at 8.30 a. m., at the college church. As the anniversary falls three days before the annual commencement exercises, a great gathering of the alumni will be on hand to congratulate Monsignor Bradley, who has not only been a priest for quarter of a century, but has been connected with the college through the entire period. Monsignor Bradley is a native of Braintree, Mass., and after receiving his early education in that town entered Mt. St. Mary's college as a student. Upon finishing his classical course, he entered the seminary connected with the college and was ordained in 1892 by His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons. During his four years in theology, Monsignor Bradley served as prefect of the junior department of the college and taught junior classes, and upon his ordination he accepted a position as a teacher at his alma mater. In due course of time becoming president of the college. A pleasing feature in connection with the jubilee about to be celebrated is the fact that this year's attendance at Mt. St. Mary's college is the largest in the history of the institution, and that covers a period of 100 years.

PERSHING GOES TO THE FRONT

PARIS, June 14.—Although Gen. Pershing's stay day in Paris was naturally filled to overflowing with social affairs he managed nevertheless to utilize odd moments for business. It is understood that he will soon leave for an extended trip to the front.

Following his attendance at the chamber of deputies the general and his staff motored to an aviation field to watch aerial evolutions of French experts. After an hour with the aviators General Pershing returned to Paris and conferred with the minister of marine. After a rest he went to keep a dinner engagement with Minister of War Painleve.

While both meetings with the ministers were largely of a social order it is understood that they afforded the American commander an opportunity to at least broach the work into which he and his following are so eager to plunge.

Gen. Pershing stole a brief period between his visits to Admiral Lacour and Mr. Painleve to receive the French and then the American newspapermen. He consented graciously, but not too willingly, to be sketched from life by a young Parisian woman artist, who worked as the correspondents piled him with questions.

Gen. Pershing spoke almost joyfully of the prospect of being able to take up his work immediately. It was characteristic that during his talk he never used the first personal pronoun, but always referred to "us."

BOOST PRICES IN MEXICO

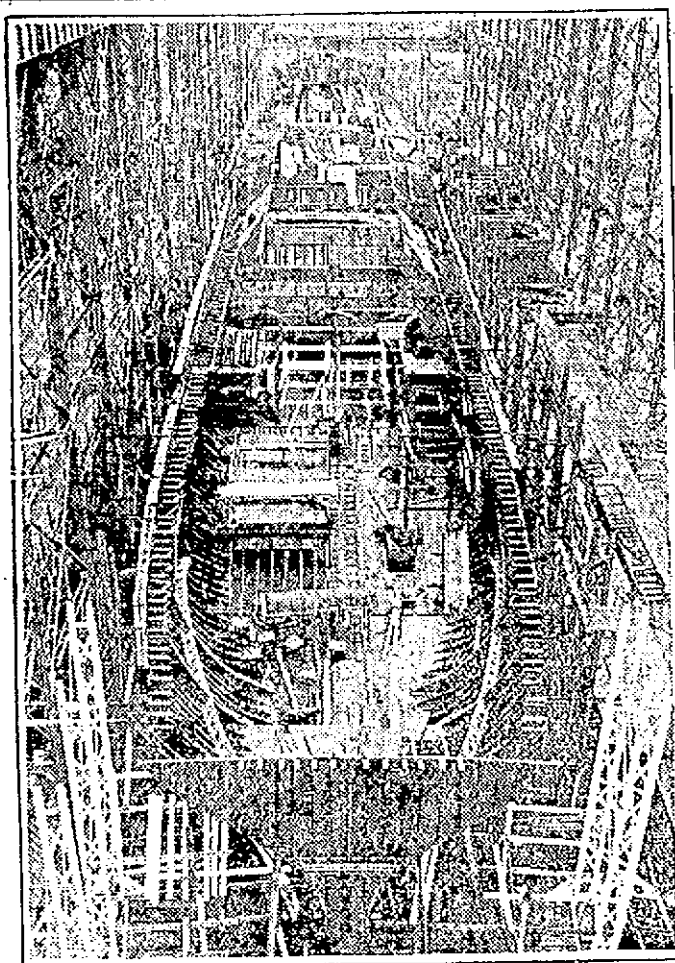

MEXICO CITY, June 15.—The retail price of tobacco on all grades and classes advanced on June 1 in Mexico. This was caused by the increase in revenue taxes which, on imported tobacco, amounted to 100 per cent. Native tobacco taxes were increased in lesser degree but sufficient to make a material difference in the retail price. Well known brands of American tobacco and cigars sell for from three to four times the price paid for them at retail in the United States.

On June 1, the Mexico City street cars increased their fares 20 per cent.

NEW JAPANESE RAILWAY BOND

TOKIO, June 15.—The subscriptions to the new railway bonds, which the Japanese government has just floated on behalf of the Imperial Government railways, total about $2,172,575 according to a statement issued by the Bank of Japan.

Subscriptions from the public were under $1,000,000. The rest of the bonds were assigned to the underwriting banks. General investors, anticipating the issue of Entente loans have no trouble finding a breeding market for them through county agents or the state agricultural colleges. Sheep specialists of the department believe that although prices for breeding stock now are high, those

SAVE THOSE EWE LANDS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—Save every ewe lamb possible for breeding is the urgent message the department of agriculture is sending to sheep owners. Market for slaughter only those being absolutely worthless for breeding stock. There is a strong demand among farmers for breeding stock and owners of ewe lambs should have no trouble finding a breeding market for them through county agents or the state agricultural colleges. Sheep specialists of the department believe that although prices for breeding stock now are high, those

SUPPLY FOOD TO POOR

LONDON, June 15.—Mrs. Lloyd George, wife of the premier, made a tour the other day of the new communal kitchens established in the poorer sections of the London district. At one of them in the east end, Mrs. George tasted the fare and pronounced it good enough for her own household.

The communal kitchens are being set up by the municipalities in various parts of the country. The aim is to supply food to the poor at nominal prices and to make the institutions self-supporting.

MAN ON U. S. SHIP GAVE
TIP TO GERMAN SPIES

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 14.—Capt. Frank Lauren, of the American schooner Barbara, sunk by a German submarine May 21, while on a voyage from Port Arthur, Tex., for Spezia, reported on his arrival here today that spies at Gibraltar in some way obtained information regarding the movements of his vessel and conveyed it to the commander of the U-boat by which he was attacked. One member of the crew was arrested at Gibraltar on Capt. Lauren's complaint. There was reason to believe, the captain said, that he had been in communication with German spies. It was known, he said, that the Barbara would proceed from Spezia to Gibraltar and the member of the crew, whose name was not revealed, formally was charged by the Italian authorities with furnishing information to the enemy. While approximately 70 miles from Cape Trafalgar, Capt. Lauren was startled by a shell that whizzed over the masts of the Barbara and a moment later a submarine appeared close by. JEALOUSY OF JAPAN

Japan appears to have taken offense at a note from Washington to China, urging a settlement of internal troubles there in progress. It is alleged that a distorted version of the note bearing a New York date, and published in a Japanese paper, has caused the misunderstanding.

Very naturally Japan feels that she should be consulted by the Washington authorities before they issue any important diplomatic document bearing upon Chinese matters in which Japan may be directly interested. The press of Tokyo drew a striking contrast in bringing forward the unpleasant situation that might be brought about if Japan interfered in Mexican affairs without consulting the United States.

The fact that any false or distorted version of a diplomatic document could be cabled from this country to any other, shows the need of a strict censorship, not only of press associations, but of cable dispatches. This is necessary for the protection of the government, and its extreme importance is well illustrated in the present instance.

No trouble will result from the episode once it is explained to Japan, but the delicate nature of our relations with Japan and the great need of extreme caution on our part in dealing with eastern matters are clearly shown. It is necessary always to keep in mind that the Monroe Doctrine is still in force and that its very existence causes such ambitious nations as Japan to be more ready to stand upon their dignity when they find the United States interfering with conditions at their doors.

WERNER HORN'S CASE

In a Boston court Wednesday, Werner Horn, Lieutenant of a Prussian regiment, was convicted of violating the interstate commerce laws in transporting dynamite from one state to another. He was detected in an attempt to blow up the Vaneboro bridge between Maine and Canada early in 1915. He now pleads justification as an act of war, but the United States was not at war when the act was committed.

The maximum penalty for the charge on which he was tried is a prison sentence of 18 months and a fine of $1000. Sentence was deferred pending an appeal on the grounds that the defendant's act was justified as an act of war and that the Boston court has no jurisdiction in such a case. If it has not, the officers should turn the prisoner over to Canada as it was on the Canadian side that the explosion was set off.

There are a good many Horns, or men like him, in this country, but now that we are at war, if they are caught, their punishment will be very different from that prescribed for violation of interstate traffic laws.

OPPOSING THE FOOD BILL

There is opposition to the food bill now before congress. Where does it come from? Mainly from the food speculators, and the bonding concerns that pre-empt the crops of the country before they are harvested. Some democratic senators are leaders in opposition to the Lever bill. They go so far as to dub Mr. Hoover as the man whom President Wilson substitutes for the constitution of the United States.

Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, who bitterly opposed the embargo on cotton, is a leader in opposition to the Lever bill. He is rapidly losing the confidence of the people of the country. How he stands with the people of his own state, we are unable to say. If he pursues his present policy much farther, he will have achieved a record that should place him side by side with the group of wilful men who held out against a declaration of war when this nation had no alternative unless to relinquish her status as a great power jealous of her rights and ever ready to defend them.

THE RAID ON LONDON

The German airplane raid upon London, Wednesday, was the worst yet reported. It was probably intended as an answer to the recent allied attack upon the naval base at Ostend. With fifteen machines showering bombs upon the most congested part of the city, the execution during the fifteen minutes of its continuance was indeed frightful. Women and children as usual formed a large proportion of the victims. In one school ten children were killed and fifty injured. The aeroplanes certainly aimed the bombs accurately for the most crowded districts.

The raiders were too high for the anti-aircraft guns and the British craft that arose to give battle succeeded in bringing down but one of the German planes. London, it would seem, will be under the necessity of keeping a squadron of flying machines hovering over the city the greater part of the time in order to guard against the raiders.

WILL, PLEAD FOR DEMOCRACY

The strong point in the leadership of President Campers of the American Federation of Labor has been, and is now, his opposition to allowing the organization of which he is the head, to be in the slightest degree under the control of socialists. In view of the fact that he has had many hard battles against the efforts of socialists to force the organization to accept their principles, it may be considered somewhat strange that he is allowing a representative of the organization to attend the conference of socialist bodies soon to be held at Petrograd. James Duncan, a member of the United States mission to Russia, will appear before the socialists to plead for democracy and national independence. There is good ground for the hope that Mr. Duncan will make a deep impression upon his hearers and that he may swing them into line for the loyal support of the government in the war.

CENSORSHIP LAW NEEDED

Scarcely a day passes without bringing up fresh evidence of the need of a censorship law that will prevent news of the private movements of the government from reaching the enemy. We hold that in the absence of a censorship law every such item that falls into the hands of any news association in the country, may find its way to the enemy. The Associated Press is no exception to this rule as the managers cannot vouch for the loyalty of its clients or of the employees of these clients. This and other similar bodies send out articles which should not be sent out. Even to warn papers not to publish certain items, is giving information of private matters that may get into unfriendly hands and thus reach the enemy.

CONSTITUTION PIECEMEAL

The constitutional convention now in session has voted wisely in deciding to submit separate amendments to the people for adoption. Very often it happens that a measure otherwise good is killed because of some objectionable feature. This is notoriously true of bills vetoed by the governor and even of some vetoed by the president of the United States. The action of the convention will enable the people to reject objectionable features in the new constitution, a plan that is calculated to give us a system of organic law as near as possible to what we want. We can adopt or reject the amendments piecemeal and more intelligently than by voting upon them as one article.

THE LIBERTY LOAN

The Liberty Loan has been oversubscribed. This is good news. The fact augurs well for our part in the war. It will not give Germany any cause to come out with the statement that her claim that the American people are not behind President Wilson in this war, has been verified. On the contrary it will prove to all the world that the people are ready to respond to every demand of the government for the resources necessary to bring victory to our arms.

WELCOME TO GEN. PERSHING

Major General Pershing received a most cordial welcome in Paris. The French are glad to see him of course, but they long for the time when the American general will lead an army to the western battlefield to assist in defeating Germany. That day is not far distant.

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

No Need to Look Old—Natural Color Comes With the Use of Q-Ban, the Great Scientific Discovery—Not a Dye.

There is no longer any need for sensible people to let gray hairs spoil their looks or make them appear older than they really are or feel. Now that great chemists have succeeded in discovering a way to bring back a natural color to gray and faded hair in a perfectly healthful and pleasant way—without dyes and without likelihood of ridicule—thousands have banished their gray hairs for good. This way is by the use of Q-Ban Hair Color Remover, a harmless and efficient liquid, all ready to use.

Ironclad Guarantee
Q-Ban is guaranteed by the makers to give satisfaction—or your money back. Not a patent medicine, not a dye. Only 50c at Louis K. Natural Aviator

A certain local man who is noted for his fiery temper was talking about the war.

"If I had my choice," he said, "I know what part I'd take in the conflict."

"What would you do?" the friend asked.

"I'd apply for a position in the aviation corps."

"And I'll bet you'd make good too."

"Thank you, why do you think so?"

"Because I never saw anybody go up in the air easier than you do."

Reprisals

A tobacconist sent a doctor the other day a $10 box of cigars, saying he knew they hadn't been ordered, but they were so excellent he was sure the doctor would enjoy them. Bill enclosed. Terms strictly cash.

The doctor wrote back:

"Delighted with the cigars. Though it is true you haven't called my bill, I venture to send you herewith two prescriptions for rheumatism and dyspepsia, respectively, that I am sure you will like, as they have given me."

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Yours grace has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Getting One's Haircut

An observing barber claims that the excitement due to the war is helping the barber trade generally. "Men who formerly had their hair cut every six weeks or two months are now coming in more often, while the men who used to be satisfied with two or three shaves a week have increased the number very materially."

"I am no student, and will not attempt to explain why this condition prevails. I only know that it does. And another thing a great many don't know is that men are just as regular as clockwork in having haircuts. Besides, they don't seem to realize they have the habit. A few weeks ago I made out a card of 10 men who would be in during the week, and placed it in an envelope with some friends during an argument to prove my statement. On Saturday night of the same week the envelope was opened, and seven of the 10 had been customers during the week."—Columbus Dispatch.

RED SOX ARE SLIPPING SHUT OUT BY ST. LOUIS

BOSTON, June 15.—St. Louis shut out Boston 3 to 0 yesterday. Groom allowed Boston three hits but only one man was able to reach second. On the other hand, St. Louis hit Leonard's offerings at will, getting 10 hits for three runs. The first score was made in the second inning on Severoid's single. Marsans' sacrifice and Pratt's single. In the sixth Severoid tripled and after two were out Johnson was passed and stole second. Groom's two batters to centre field scored Severoid and Johnson. Not one of the St. Louis outfielders had a putout. The score:

St. Louis 3, Brooklyn 4.
ST. LOUIS, June 15.—A triple steal executed by Miller, Cruise and Long in the fifth inning yesterday followed by Hornsby's home run in the seventh enabled St. Louis to win from Brooklyn, 3 to 4. Olson tied the score for Brooklyn in the seventh with a home run that bounced over the high fence in left field. Hickman hit a home run with Pfeffer on second base in the third. The score:
St. Louis..... 0 0 0 4 0 1 0—11
Brooklyn..... 0 0 2 0 1 1 0—4
Pfeffer, Meadows and Livingston; Miller, Smith and Miller.

New York 2, Pittsburgh 0.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 15.—Pittsburgh had a man on every base in the fourth inning yesterday, but was unable to score and New York again won, 2 to 0. Good pitching by Peritt and Jacobs featured the game. New York scored first in the fourth inning when Burns was passed, went to second on a balk and went home on Zimmerman's single to right. Carry left Herzog's lone fly in the sun, making New York's second score a home run. The score:
New York..... 0 0 0 1 0 1 0—2
Pittsburgh..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Peritt and Rariden; Jacobs and W. Wagner.

Cincinnati 6, Philadelphia 5.
CINCINNATI, O., June 15.—A single by Kopf and a double by Rousch scored a run in the ninth inning and enabled Cincinnati to win a six-run game from Philadelphia here yesterday, 6 to 5. Both Mayer and Tony were hit at opportune times, while the fielding was ragged. The score:
Cincinnati..... 0 2 0 0 1 0 1—6
Philadelphia..... 0 1 1 1 1 0 1—5
Tony and Wingo; Mayer and Burns.

IN THE TRENCHES TO "CALM" HIS NERVES

Lowell Man Asked for Front Line Trenches as Nerve Restorer

Request of Chatkoff Makes War Officials Sit Up and Take Notice

The only man in France who ever asked to be sent to the front line trenches as a cure for "nerves" was a Lowell man. His name is Herman Chatkoff, an American member of the aviation corps. Up to the time he enlisted, Chatkoff was employed by the Reliable Furture company in Middlesex street. He has been twice a member of the Foreign Legion. He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., but, as before stated, was living in Lowell and employed here, just before the war began. In the early days of the war Chatkoff joined the Legion and after preliminary training was sent to the front. He did exceptionally good work in the trenches and was through both the Verdun and Champagne campaigns. In August, 1916, Chatkoff conceived the idea of becoming an aviator, as there was not enough excitement in fighting on the ground. He put in his application and the request was granted.

Makes Officialdom Gasp

After he had received a pilot's brevet, the legionnaire waited for three months to see some actual service. Nothing seemed to turn up for him that was at all exciting. He grew tired of the comparative inactivity and last February sent the minister of war one of the strangest communications that personage ever received.

"Because I feel that I am losing my motive force and to some extent my 'nerve' for my service," wrote Chatkoff, "I hereby request that I be transferred back to the Foreign Legion and sent to the front at once on active service."

The letter was turned over to an under official, who read the communication twice, gasped, then sent for this strange American who kept at on dangerous fighting.

"Have I read that letter aright?" asked the official, "and do you mean what it says?"

"Cured" and Flesher Again
Chatkoff assured him that trying as life is in the trenches, flying was more of a dizzy business than a dangerous one. He had no intention of abandoning his career as an aviator, he said, but he felt he could do much better work if his "nerves" could be restored by another spell on the fighting front.

Again his request was granted and Chatkoff was assigned to the trenches with the Foreign Legion. He is at present at Pressy-Belleville, hoping to get an early opportunity to give proof of his "restored nerves."

HOME MADE SWIMMING APPARATUS FATAL

BOSTON, June 15.—While learning to swim with self-made supports, constructed of air-tight cans, connected under his arms by pieces of string, Walter Sherman, 13 years old, son of John Sherman of 35 Oak street, Waltham, was drowned early last evening in the Charles river near the Newton street footbridge, when the strings broke and the supports killed him. Members of the metropolitan park police recovered the body two hours after the drowning.

Sherman with a group of small boys went to the swimming station late in the afternoon. Sherman had made water wings with tin cans and stout strings. The cans had been made absolutely air-tight. Sherman swam for a while with full success, using his improvised wings as a support and help. When he and the other boys were taking their final swim before going to the homes for supper Sherman met with his fatal mishap. In some manner when he was a few yards from shore and in the vicinity of a treacherous hole in the basin of the river the strings connecting the cans broke. Sherman shouted to his boy companions for help and sank into the stream.

SWOBODA NOW HELD FOR COMPANY M STILL IN RECRUITING SPIES

PARIS, June 15.—Raymond J. Ruff Swoboda, who was held for some time by the Paris police in the spring of 1915 on suspicion of causing a fire on board the French liner La Touraine, has been arrested by the Zurich police, according to the Zurich correspondent of the Petit Parisien. Swoboda is accused of recruiting spies to work against France and is alleged to be in close relations with a Geneva business man who was recently sentenced to life imprisonment in Paris for espionage.

Swoboda, when arrested in Paris in March, 1915, had an American passport and claimed to be an American citizen. At his trial it was said that his real name was Schwind and that he was a German reserve officer. He was finally discharged and ordered expelled from France. He appealed to the American embassy against this expulsion but, after an investigation the American authorities refused to interfere.

SINN FEINERS CONTEST SEAT VACATED BY DEATH OF MAJOR WILLIAM REDMOND

LONDON, June 15.—The Sinn Feiners of East Clare have decided to contest the seat in parliament vacated by the death at the front of Major William Redmond. They have chosen as candidate Edward de Valera, formerly a professor in Dublin university and sentenced to death for his connection with the Sinn Fein revolt. His sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life and he is now in jail.

FLAG DAY OBSERVANCE BY LOWELL ELKS

Lowell lodge of Elks added more laurels to its already long list when it conducted the most extensive flag day celebration that Lowell has ever experienced. On account of the lateness of the hour when the ceremonies had been concluded, The Sun was unable to give an account of the program in its entirety in yesterday's edition.

Usually the Elks hold their flag day ceremonies indoors, and it is generally a strictly lodge affair, but yesterday over 500 people participated in the exercises on the South common. The patriotic element was predominant in every phase of the celebration, from the start of the parade, headed by several military bodies, to the singing of "America" as the concluding feature of the exercises.

The parade started from the Elks' headquarters in Middle street shortly after 2 o'clock. Following a platoon of police, in command of Lieut. Martin Connors, Chief Marshal Walter R. Jeyes and his staff appeared. The latter was made up of Lieut. Coleman of the Machine Gun company; Harry T. Roberts of the Fusiliers; Baker, first class, William Nitschke, U.S.N.; Thomas W. Bagley, Spanish War Veteran; Luther V. Faulkner, Boy Scout of America; Louis Munroe, Sons of Veterans; and Alexander Plandars, Post 120, G.A.R.

Preceded by the U. S. Cartridge Company, a platoon from the Machine Gun company, Battery B, and the Lodge of Elks formed the remainder of the parade. The Elks were led by Esquire James E. Donnelly, and made an attractive appearance in their plain beach suits. Each Elk carried a small American flag and wore the purple color of the order. It was a real midsummer turnout.

At the common every man was patriotic. Probably the most spectacular was the flag drill by high school girls under the direction of Miss Ethel V. Cleaves and Miss Frances R. H. Leggett. The young ladies wore white dresses with a blending of patriotic colors, and they danced to the strains of music they offered an extremely pleasing sight.

Miss Louise Harrigan as "Liberty" was especially attractive, and her number was warmly appreciated. The Elks' ritual, always an impressive affair, was even more solemn than usual yesterday. The furnishings and equipment for the conducting of the ceremony had been brought from the clubhouse to the common, and their presence gave the occasion an unusual sanctity. The exercises were conducted by the officers of the lodge under the direction of Exalted Ruler Eugene V. Brown.

Mayor O'Donnell and Congressman Rogers were the speakers of the day. Mayor O'Donnell spoke at length on the purpose of the occasion and dwelt on the history of the American flag. His address was full of interest, and held the crowd to the end. His address in full was published in yesterday's Sun.

Congressman Rogers spoke briefly on the significance of the flag, and explained some of the problems which we must meet in the course of the present war.

There were several musical numbers, including "The Star Spangled Banner," a song sung by Nora Regan Longtin; "The Star Spangled Banner," by Miss Longtin and chorus; "Your Country Needs You," by George J. Hawley and New York southern melodies by the Elks and chorus.

Prayer was offered by Brother Victor Gordon, chaplain, and the Elks' tribute was given by Brother John P. Farley, P.E.R. The concluding feature was the singing of "America" by all present.
